SULZER ACCUSER'S TESTIMONY CALLED 'BRAZEN INVENTION'

Marshall Opens Argument for Defense, Denouncing Witness Peck as Falsifier.

ATTACKS THREE ARTICLES

Technicality as to Date of Acts Raised Again in Effort to Acquit Governor.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 9.—Louis A. Marshall of counsel for Gov. Sulzer today made a bitter attack upon the testimony of Duncan W. Peck, Superintendent of Public Works, charged the attorneys for the State with employing unfair tactics to convict the Governor; pictured Sulzer as a man of the highest integrity, but who had poor business ability, and formally denied every charge made against the defendant. Attorney Marshall delivered the first of the final arguments in the impeachment proceedings.

Most of Mr. Marshall's address centered about the "money articles" in the impeachment charges one, two and six. These charge larceny in that he converted to his own use moneys contributed for his campaign and perjury in that he gave a false affidavit in support of an inaccurate campaign statement.

Marshall said no larceny existed because the money came into Sulzer's hands legally and that the charge of perjury was groundless because the law never required an affidavit to a campaign statement.

Further, he argued, the Governor thought the statement correct when he signed it.

"Brazen Invention," He Says.

Peck's testimony that he was asked by the Governor to deny a $500 campaign contribution under oath was termed a "brazen invention."

The attorney pointed out that Peck's department—he is Superintendent of Public Works—had been under investigation and that "irregularities of a serious nature" had been found.

"Peck had a strong motive for inventing such a conversation as that to which he has testified," he declared, "because it would enable him to aid in the destruction of the man who started a movement which threatened not only the office which he held, but his very liberty.

In speaking of the Governor's poor business ability, Marshall pointed out that many statesmen had been poor financiers—notably President McKinley and Daniel Webster—and have depended on the gifts of friends to aid them.

"One might as well charge that the God-like Daniel was guilty of larceny,' said Marshall, "because his admirers, seeking to help him in his career, may have placed in his possession funds intended for that purpose and which he scattered with spendthrift lavishness.

Criticizes Board of Managers.

"That Gov. Sulzer had such admirers, men like Mr. Schiff, Mr. Morgenthau, Mr. Lehman, Mr. Cox, Judge Conlan and others who have here testified, is established beyond peradventure and to intimate that the respondent in the use of money which he received from many or all of these men for his personal uses did so with a criminal intent is as cruel as it is ungenerous."

The criticism of the Board of Managers was in relation to their insinuations in court that the books of Harris & Fuller were "doctored" and that Frederick L. Colwell and Louis A. Sarecky were induced to go into hiding by the Governor.

Marshall pleaded with the court to be guided in its course only by the law.

"Do not follow the Will-o'-Wisps which lure into the noisome bogs of anarchy," he said. "Let the law be the Polar Star which now, as in the past, points out the path of safety. On your decision rests not only the future of William Sulzer but also the happiness of future generations.

Refers to Ryan's Testimony.

"Shall ours be a government of laws or one of passions and caprice? It is my fervid hope that the decision which is to be rendered here will not leave the outcome in doubt. Though life is sweet, may I not live to see the day when the law shall cease to be paramount in our daily lives and in our system of government."

The attorney made but a passing reference to the testimony of Allen A. Ryan that the Governor sought through him to obtain the influence of Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, and the Republican State chairman, William Barnes, to stop the trial. Marshall said that Ryan's testimony was introduced "for the purpose of creating distrust of the Governor" and had not the slightest probative effect in establishing the charges.

Marshall's address took all of the morning session and part of the afternoon. Judge Alton B. Parker was to

REPORTS "KIMONA" LOST WHEN VIOLIN WAS MEANT

Police Puzzled in Search Until They Find That Article Was a Cremona.

A search through Maplewood for a kimona which was made in 1721 was ordered by the Page boulevard police Thursday. The loss was reported by Samuel Varble of 1403 Cockrill avenue.

The police could not understand why anyone should be anxious to recover a garment made so long ago that it must be far behind the present day fashions.

They were further puzzled by the circumstance that in reporting the loss of the kimona Varble told them there were several worm holes in it.

Puzzled in their quest for the antique article of apparel, the police communicated with Varble and asked him for a better description of it.

"I didn't lose a kimona in Maplewood," said Varble. "I lost a Cremona—an old violin made in 1721. The back is made of maple wood and it is so old that it is worm eaten. It was stolen from my home while I and my family were seeing the Veiled Prophet parade Tuesday night."

The kimona squad was called off and a search for the old violin was started. It was valued by the owner at $200.

BROTHER WITNESS AGAINST BITTNER, SLAYER OF FATHER

Edward, When Questioned, Says He Once Hit Arthur on Head With Brick.

INSANITY AS DEFENSE

Defendant's Mother and Girl Who Is Expected to Testify Are in Court.

Edward Paul Bittner appeared in Judge Kinsey's court Thursday afternoon as a witness against his brother, Arthur W. Bittner, who shot and killed his father, Arthur P. Bittner, a butcher, of 2231A Red Bud avenue, in teh father's motor truck, July 27, 1912. Bittner's defense is insanity.

Attorneys for Arthur Bittner asked Edward whether he had ever struck his brother on the head with a brick. This apparently was an attempt to show that this injury might have unsettled Arthur's mind. Edward Bittner replied that he struck Arthur with a brick about nine years ago, but that the injury was not serious.

The prisoner, who had shown no interest in the proceedings, smiled when reference was made to the blow with the brick.

In court when the trial opened were young Bittner's mother and Miss Myrtle Benhoff of 1226 St. Louis avenue, whom he visited the night before the shooting and who has been called by the State to testify that the revolver with which the elder Bittner was shot was the property of her father.

Miss Benhoff is expected to testify that young Bittner surreptitiously took the revolver from her home while visiting her a few hours before the shooting. Circuit Attorney Harvey relies on this testimony to show that the shooting was premeditated.

Doctors Testify to Wounds.

Dr. Fred Hagler of the city hospital staff testified that he examined the elder Bittner when he arrived at the hospital and found two wounds, one over the right eye and the other under the right ear. Both were powder-burned, the wound over the eye showing more traces of powder than the other.

Dr. Joseph Meinhart, who made the autopsy, testified that Bittner's death was due to meningitis directly caused by the wounds.

UNION LABOR ON STATE CAPITOL IS DEMANDED

Committee of Which P. J. Morin Is Head Calls on Commission at Jefferson City.

JEFFERSON CITY, Oct. 9.—Nineteen labor union representatives today demanded of the Board of Permanent Seat of Government and the State Capitol Commission that a union clause be incorporated in the contract for the construction of the new $3,500,000 State capitol. A committee of the Building Trades Union, appointed by the State Federation of Labor, of which P. J. Morin of St. Louis is chairman, formally presented the demand.

It was explained to the labor men that under the law a union clause could not be written into the contract, but they were assured the structure could not be built without organized labor.

Owing to the fact that the building must be completed in three years, the commissioners believe the structure will have to be unionized to prevent labor trouble.

PLAYER OPPOSES SALE OF TRACT TO CITY AT $80 A FOOT

Payne Strip Not Worth Price Asked by Deputy Assessor, Says Comptroller.

COURT DECISION IN WAY

City Could Not Use Land, if Bought, Until Supreme Judges Settled Shaw Controversy.

City Comptroller Player joined Councilman Protzmann Thursday in the fight on the bill authorizing the purchase of the Payne tract of land at King's highway and Magnolia avenue from Joseph F. Murphy for an extension to Tower Grove Park. Player said that the price of $80 a foot for the ground was exorbitant, and that its value was not in excess of $50 or $60 a foot.

On the basis of Player's valuation of the property, with which Councilman Protzmann agrees, there would be an apparent profit of $20 to $30 a foot in the sale of the property to the city at $80 a foot. As the strip contains nearly 1800 feet, the total apparent excess to be paid to the owner and option holder would be from $35,000 to $50,000.

Kiel Places Price Low.

Mayor Kiel said he was not familiar with the details of the bill. Land values in the neighborhood of Tower Grove Park, he said, were not above $50 to $60 a foot.

The bill authorizing the purchase of the land is scheduled to come up in the Council for passage Friday.

Options Expire Soon.

The options held by Murphy upon about one-half the tract expire within four months and the bill would have to be passed and approved within that time to enable him to save his options.

Player said that the purchase of the property by the city at the present time, while a controversy between the city and the Shaw estate over a 200-foot strip of land surrounding the park was pending in the courts, would be extremely ill-advised.

The purchase of the land at this time would cause the city's investment to remain idle until the Supreme Court passes upon the case, and if the decision should be against the city, the investment would be lost, he said.

Murphy, who is Third Assistant Deputy City Assessor, living at 3255 Pennsylvania avenue, is now fathering the bill pending in the Council. He owns some of the land and has options on the rest. Numerous other attempts have been made in recent years to sell this property to the city, but has failed.

The strip of land is known as the Payne tract, and is at the northwest corner of the park. It is 1740 feet long and 184 feet deep. It would be a continuation of the 200 feet Shaw strip around the park.

When Henry Shaw deeded Tower Grove Park to the city he provided that a strip of land 200 feet wide surrounding the entire park should be leased on long terms for villa purposes, the rentals to go to Shaw during his life time, and afterwards to his estate. It was Shaw's idea that there would be a big demand for the villa sites, but it was found before his death that the scheme was impracticable.

The city was never able to lease the villa sites, and the 200-foot strip of land has been used for Park purposes. A few years ago the trustees of the Shaw estate filed suit to have the title of the strip of land reconveyed to them so that the lots might be sold outright to persons who desired to use them for villa purposes.

Must Await Court Decision.

That suit was decided against the trustees in the Circuit Court, but was carried to the Supreme Court. It was pointed out by Comptroller Player that if the decision of the Supreme Court should be against the city, the Payne tract would be utterly useless for park purposes. If it should be acquired now, he said, it would have to remain idle until the court's decision was handed down.

Profit Not More Than $7000.

Murphy said Thursday that he owned outright 841 feet of the strip, and had an option on the balance, expiring within four months.

"This property is easily worth $80 a foot," Murphy said. "I paid $75 a foot for some of it, and have offers of $90 a foot for some lots for building purposes.

"My profit, if the bill should be passed, would not be more than $6000 or $7000."

Mack's "Kid" Battery

10,000 FANS WAITING WHEN POLO GROUNDS OPEN

Rain Had Left Playing Field in Soggy Condition —Man, in Line Since 3 A. M., Collapses, but Get His Place Back.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—A rift in the clouds this morning encouraged fans to expect fair weather for the third game of the world's baseball championship series. Notwithstanding the official forecast for more rain, the downpour had ceased this morning.

The National Commission announced at 10:30 that a game would be played today if there was no further rain. The announcement was made upon a report to the commission by Umpire Rigler, who examined the field. Rigler reported that the grounds were soggy, but fit for playing.

Immediately after the announcement the gates swung open and the long line waiting outside began to file into the park.

Ten thousand persons, it was estimated, were in line when the gates were thrown open. The first to enter was David Jones of Scranton, Pa. He had got in line at 3 a. m. only to collapse from exhaustion later. The police took charge of him and when others in line learned under what circumstances he had given up his place, they insisted that he go ahead when he recovered.

Jones explained that he waited in line here nearly all night for the opening game, duplicated the performance at Philadelphia, then returned to New York for today's game.

The Athletics and the Giants came upon the field together shortly before 1 o'clock and the greeting cheers of the crowd had scarcely died away before the Giants started in a long batting practice.

There was a general cheer when Mathewson and Wiltse marched across the field together. They were regarded as the heroes of yesterday's combat and they had to repeatedly doff their caps in recognition of the crowd's plaudits.

The sun came out about 1 o'clock and indications of a clear afternoon helped keep the crowd in good humor.

During New York's field practice, Merkle went back to his station at first base, his ankle seemed much improved and Manager McGraw said Merkle would play today.

The crowd had at 1:30 p. m. filled all the upper and lower grandstands and every seat in the backfield bleachers was occupied, with hundreds pressing for admittance at the gate.

STEEL SHIP A MAGNET TO ELECTRIC FISH

So Many Cling to Vessel Its Speed Is Reduced, at Least So Sailors Say.

BOSTON, Oct. 9.—When the British freighter Rochelle, reported four days late from San Domingo, several members of the crew said the delay was due principally to electric fish, or torpedo fish, which, attracted by the steel plate of the vessel, fastened themselves by hundreds against her bottom and sides.

The steamer was in the stream north of Cuba when she began to slow down. The officers were at a loss to account for the change in speed. Several sailors said they felt a lunging sensation about their feet and finger tips. Members of the crew became alarmed.

A sailor looked over the side and said it was plastered with strange-looking fish, two or three thick, along the port-side under water. The starboard side also was covered. The sailors believe the fish extended to the keel plates.

As the Rochelle moved north and got out of the warm water the fish dropped off and the vessel resumed her speed.

Marshall Bases Sulzer's Defense on a Technicality

follow him for the impeachment managers.

"We are on the threshold of an event," began Attorney Marshall of Gov. Sulzer's counsel, "which will make a permanent impression upon the history of our state, which will determine whether the reign of law has ceased and that of passion and prejudice has begun.

"It is for this court to decide to create a precedent which will inevitably and irrevocably declare the policy of this state with regard to the permanency of its institutions and the independence of those who make up the sum total of its official life.

Sketches Governor's History.

Marshall then sketched the Governor's political history.

"And now William Sulzer, who wrought all this," continued the attorney, "stands before you on trial for his very existence, charged with being a common criminal. Not because, while an incumbent of office, he has been guilty of official corruption, not because he has taken one dollar of the people's money, nor has enriched himself at their expense or has received a bribe, or has done aught to injure the public weal; not because he has been guilty of treason, of a violation of the Constitution, nor of his oath of office; not because he has neglected the performance of his official duties; nor has absented himself from the seat of government; nor indicated, to the slightest degree, a lack of zeal for the public welfare. The achievements of his administration, as they have passed before the eyes of the people, absolve him from all suspicion of guilt in regard to any of the offenses contained in the category of the usual forms of official misconduct.

"When we analyze this collection of offenses, we cannot fail to be impressed by the fact that the three fundamental charges relate to acts which occurred and were completed before the respondent entered upon the performance of his duties as Governor and took his constitutional oath of office. The Court has reserved determination of the question as to whether those transactions constitute ground for impeachment. That question must now be decided: Will impeachment lie in this state for acts which do not constitute 'wilful and corrupt misconduct in office?'"

Marshall dwelt for nearly an hour on this subject, quoting legal precedent at length.

Discusses Different Charges.

Mr. Marshall then took up the different charges against the Governor and declared that not one of them was supported by fact.

It was believed today that at the end of the arguments on Friday night court would adjourn over Monday, which will be observed as Columbus day, until Tuesday. Then voting on the constitutional objections to the impeachment articles brought by attorneys for the defense and the impeachment articles themselves will begin.

The voting on the objections to the articles of impeachment and the testimony will be done in executive session. The final vote will be taken on each of the eight articles separately, if all of them are allowed to stand.

Murphy Never Requested to Stop Sulzer Trial, He Says.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, abandoned his policy of silence long enough to assert that no one had ever come to him with a request that he stop Gov. Sulzer's impeachment or trial.

"No person has ever approached me on that subject," Murphy said. "The very first thing I knew about this phase of the situation was when I read the testimony of Allan Ryan in the newspapers. That was all news to me."

Ryan testified at the Sulzer trial that Gov. Sulzer had asked him to endeavor to have Murphy stop the impeachment proceedings.

At present this office is held by the senior Bishop in order of confirmation. To become effective, this amendment to the constitution requires passage by the House of Bishops.

The amendment provides that the presiding Bishop shall be elected by the House of Bishops, subject to the confirmation of the House of Deputies. The term of office and the salary are to be taken up later.

The House of Deputies received a memorial on behalf of the diocese of California, recommending that the title page of the prayer book be changed by using the words "Holy Catholic Church."

The diocese of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia asked that a special missionary district be created for the negro people with a Bishop in charge.

GETS A YEAR FOR THEFT

William Hollats of 2107 North Tenth street was sentenced by Judge Dyer, in the Federal Court Thursday, to a year and a day in the Leavenworth penitentiary for the theft of a case of shoes from the C. & E. I. freight depot last April.

"I could give you five years," said the Judge, "if I were disposed to be that harsh. I am determined that this stealing from the railroads of articles in interstate transit must be stopped."

MANY THOUSANDS TO MARCH TONIGHT IN GERMAN PARADE

Mayor, Bartholdt, Archbishop and Others Will View Pageant From Reviewing Stand.

11 DIVISIONS IN LINE

Dr. Hexamer Re-elected Head of Alliance—Chorus of 1000 Sings at Closing Session.

A torchlight parade Thursday night, in which many thousands of German-Americans are expected to participate, will be reviewed at the reviewing stand in front of the courthouse, Broadway and Chestnut streets, by Mayor Kiel, members of the Municipal Assembly, Archbishop Glennon, Congressman Richard Bartholdt, officers of the National German-American Alliance and women delegates to the national convention.

The parade will be in 11 divisions, each headed by a brass band. Each marcher will carry a torch or Japanese lantern. Rembert von Menchausen will be the commanding escort, and will be assisted by a staff of mounted aids. William E. Vach will be grand marshal.

The first section will be the German societies in St. Louis. The members of turner societies will comprise the second division. The remaining sections will be made up of German singing organizations, members of the German Protestant churches, members of Catholic churches, St. Louis Rough Riders, German benefit associations, fraternal unions and floats illustrating historical incidents in the War of Liberation.

Form at Twelfth and Chestnut.

The pageant will form at Twelfth and Chestnut streets, and will march at 8 o'clock.

The line of march will be: North on Twelfth street to Washington avenue, east to Broadway, south to Elm street, east to Fourth street, north to Franklin avenue, west to High street, south to Washington avenue, west to Nineteenth street, north to Franklin avenue, west to Leffingwell, where the parade will disband.

The national convention of the German Alliance closed Wednesday night with a fete at the Coliseum, at which delegates were given seats of honor in boxes.

A chorus of 1000 voices filled the hall with a flood of music, and sang songs of the Fatherland. Between the musical numbers there were gymnastic exhibitions of turning, pyramid building and club swinging by men and women members of turner societies. Tableaux, representing incidents in the German War of Liberation, were shown at the close of the fete.

Dr. C. J. Hexamer of Philadelphia was re-elected president of the national organization at the closing business session of the convention. Adolph Timm of Philadelphia was re-elected secretary.

Other Officers Elected.

The other officers elected were: Vice-presidents, Joseph Keller, Indianapolis; John Tjarks, Baltimore; John Moersch, St. Paul; John Hermann, San Francisco; John Schwab, Cincinnati; A. P. Scheurmann, Kansas City; Leo Stern, Milwaukee, and Dr. F. H. Damsch, Portland, Ore.; treasurer, H. Weniger, Philadelphia; financial secretary, Herman Weder, Philadelphia.

San Francisco was chosen as the place of holding the next biennial convention in 1915. The meeting will be held either in July or August, the date to be fixed by the executive committee.

Most of the delegates will remain in St. Louis to attend the unveiling exercises of the Jahn monument in Forest Park Saturday afternoon. Miss Marie Stifel will unveil the statue, following a parade of turner societies.

HUMPHRIES REMITS TWO MORE CONTEMPT FINES

Hoover and Ex-Legislator Escape Penalty for Violating Street Speaking Injunction.

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 9.—Superior Judge John E. Humphries has issued an order remitting the penalties imposed on Glenn Hoover, former Assistant Attorney-General of the State of Washington, who was fined $160, and T. N. Hodgdon, former member of the Legislature, who was sentenced to six months at hard labor and to pay a fine of $500. Both defendants were adjudged guilty of contempt of court for violating anti-street speaking injunctions directed against Socialists.

The defendants were in jail only seven minutes, having been released by a writ of habeas corpus. Hoover is still "forever disbarred" by Judge Humphries' order, and the disbarment of H. M. Wells, late Socialist candidate for Mayor, has not been revoked.

KILLS HIMSELF AT TIME HE TOLD GIRL HE WOULD

Belleville Youth Shoots Himself After Leavig Trinkets With Young Woman.

HE WAS ENGAGED TO HER

George Womser Jokes With Saloon Keeper Before Ending Life With Shotgun.

George Womser, 23 years old, a machinist of Belleville, killed himself Thursday morning in fulfillment of announcements he had made the evening before to a young woman and a hint he had given two days before to a man friend.

Womser, who boarded at the home of Ray Weimann on Le Beau avenue, quit his position at a machine shop Tuesday. He told James Jackson, a saloon keeper, that he had quit because of some trouble he did not wish to explain and added, "You will hear more about this Thursday morning."

Wednesday evening he called upon Miss Blanche Heeley, 16 years old, for whom he bought an engagement ring 10 days ago. Miss Heeley's home is not far from the place where Womser boarded. According to the girl's mother, before he departed he told Miss Heeley he expected to end his lift the next morning and left his watch, scarf pin and cuff links with her as keepsakes. She did not think he was serious in his threat.

From her home he went to Jackson's saloon, two block away. He appeared to be in a good humor. In front of the barroom, he met Miss Katie Jackson, the proprietor's daughter, and invited her in to have a drink with him. She refused and Womser afterward twitted her father because his daughter was such a poor customer for the bar. When the saloon closed at midnight, Womser started home, saying to Jackson, "You'll hear about me in the morning."

The clock in Weimann's home was striking six when Weimann heard a shot in a basement room. He ran in and found Womser dead, a shotgun charge having penetrated his heart.

SALOON ROBBED THIRD TIME IN TWO MONTHS

Edward Grueninger's Place in University City Entered and $4840 Taken.

Edward Grueninger's saloon, at 6687 Olive Street road, University City, has become a favorite mark for burglars during the past two months. It was robbed the third time Tuesday night.

The robbers smashed the door with a tin can filled with concrete. They took $35 out of a cash drawer, $13.40 out of the cash register and left Grueninger a dime as capital for beginning the next day's business.

Several weeks ago the saloon was burglarized. A framed $5 bill behind the counter was taken, but the change in the cash register was left. The second robbery was about three weeks ago. The robbers again took $5, but failed to find a larger sum in one of the cash register drawers. Grueninger is a son of former Sheriff John Grueninger.

KILLS HIMSELF AT TIME HE TOLD GIRL HE WOULD

Belleville Youth Shoots Himself After Leavig Trinkets With Young Woman.

HE WAS ENGAGED TO HER

George Womser Jokes With Saloon Keeper Before Ending Life With Shotgun.

George Womser, 22 years old, a machinist of Belleville, killed himself Thursday morning in fulfillment of announcements he had made the evening before to a young woman and a hint he had given two days before to a man friend.

Womser, who boarded at the home of Ray Weimann on Le Bean avenue, quit his position at a machine shop Tuesday. He told James Jackson, a saloon keeper, that he had quit because of some trouble he did not wish to explain and added, "You will hear more about this Thursday morning."

Wednesday evening he called upon Miss Blanche Heeley, 16 years old, for whom he bought an engagement ring 10 days ago. Miss Heeley's home is not far from the place where Womser boarded. According to the girl's mother, before he departed he told Miss Heeley he expected to end his lift the next morning and left his watch, scarf pin and cuff links with her as keepsakes. She did not think he was serious in his threat.

From her homeh e went to Jackson's saloon, two block away. He appeared to be in a good humor. In front of the barroom, he met Miss Katie Jackson, the proprietor's daughter, and invited her in to have a drink with him. She refused and Womser afterward twitted her father because his daughter was such a poor customer for the bar. When the saloon closed at midnight, Womser started home, saying to Jackson, "You'll hear about me in the morning."

The clock in Weimann's home was striking six when Weimann heard a shot in a basement room. He ran in and found Womser dead, a shotgun charge having penetrated his heart.

SALOON ROBBED THIRD TIME IN TWO MONTHS

Edward Grueninger's Place in University City Entered and $4840 Taken.

Edward Grueninger's saloon, at 6657 Olive Street road, University City, has become a favorite mark for burglars during the past two months. It was robbed the third time Tuesday night.

The robbers smashed the door with a tin can filled with concrete. They took $35 out of a cash drawer, $12.40 out of the cash register and left Grueninger a dime as capital for beginning the next day's business.

Several weeks ago the saloon was burglarized. A framed $5 bill behind the counter was taken, but the change in the cash register was left. The second robbery was about three weeks ago. The robbers again took $5, but failed to find a larger sum in one of the cash register drawers. Grueninger is a son of former Sheriff John Grueninger.

GIRL STARTS A CHASE BY POLICE; 20 SHOTS FIRED

Neighbors Become So Alarmed by Fusillade They Call Wagonload of Policemen.

ROBBER SUSPECTS TAKEN

Young Woman Follows Two Men She Takes to Be Pair in Holdup Near Her Home.

After two highwaymen had robbed Paul Butler of 3406 Franklin avenue and had turned back two pursuers, one of them Private Watchman Hartnett, Wednesday night, Miss Effie Tucker of 703 North Channing avenue, who had seen the robbery from a porch, followed them to Channing and Franklin avenues. There she pointed out two forms, hurrying north, to policemen, and a chase followed in which a score of shots were fired, causing telephone reports to Police Headquarters that a number of policemen, yeggmen and innocent bystanders had been killed and wounded in a pitched battle.

When reserves arrived, they found that no one had been shot, but that one of the prisoners, William O'Connell of 1514 North Leffingwell avenue, was knocked out as the result of a clout on the head with Sergt. Kirk's club. He was taken to the City Hospital with a scalp wound.

The other prisoner, Frank Engler of Cass avenue, near Jefferson avenue, "fell dead" when Patrolman Cook fired at him, but was found to have an unpunctured skin, and was taken to the Dayton Street Station.

Watchman Suspended.

Capt. Singleton Thursday suspended Private Watchman Hartnett for his part in the affair, on which he had made no report, and he will have to defend, before the Police Board, his right to wear a licensed watchman's badge.

The highwaymen seized Butler as he passed an alley on Channing avenue, between Washington and Lucas avenues, robbed him of his gold watch, his knife, ring and a pure containing $1.50.

Effie Tucker saw the robbery from the porch and called Collins D. Blake. Just as Blake ran out, Watchman Hartnett appeared. The men drew revolvers and told Blake and the watchman to retreat, which, Blake says, they did. The men then ran east to Leonard avenue, but returned west on Morgan street, when Miss Tucker saw two men turn north on Channing avenue.

Starts Police on Chase.

Followed by Mrs. Blake, she tiptoed after them. When she saw the policemen at Franklin avenue she started them on the chase. This ended in the capture of O'Connell in a yard at 1101 North Leonard avenue by Sergt. Kirk and two patrolmen and in Engler's arrest by Sergt. Henry in front of 3408 School street, where he lay apparently dead. The policemen say he was intoxicated.

The prisoners deny that they are the highwaymen and the failure of Miss Tucker to appear at the expected time to identify them caused a delay in applying for warrants.

SAYS HE HAD TO SLEEP ON FLOOR, ASKS DIVORCE

Policemen Aleges Wife Kept Her Relatives at H sHome . Continiously for Six Months.

In a crossbill to his wife's divorce petition, James H. Omohundra, a policeman, Thursday declared that his domestic difficulties began when Mrs. Omohundra would entertain her relatives at their home, 4419 Lafayette avenue, continuously for six months and Omohundra would have to sleep on the floor while they occupied his bed.

He charges also that his wife and her relatives constantly spoke Spanish, which he did not understand; that Mrs. Omohundra induced him to borrow from money lenders at exorbitant interest to pay her debts. He accuses her of inviting other men to their home in his absence.

Mrs. Esperanza Omohundra's petition alleged that her husband ignored her, gave her no recreation, and spoke to her only in monosyllables when he came home to change his uniform so he could go visiting when off duty.

NEGRO SAYS HE GOT $500 FOR KILLING MRS. GAY

ives Police Name of o-Between in Alleged Plot, Tells Where Money Is Buried.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 9.—Detectives set out today for Tijuano, Cal., to dig for the $500 "blood money" said to have been buried near that place by Burr Harris, the negro who confessed the murder of Mrs. Rebecca P. Gay, a Christian Scientist practitioner of this city. Harris gave them minute directions for the finding of the money, which he declared he had received as payment for his crime.

The police have the name of another negro, declared by Harris to be the man who delivered the money for the instigator of the alleged plot.

WOMAN, DODGING CAR, HURT BY ANOTHER, DIES

Mrs. Lucy B. Ralston Unconscious Since Accident in Which Skull and Arm Were Fractured

Mrs. Lucy B. Ralston, 59 years old, of 3421 Lucas avenue, a music teacher, died Wednesday night at the city hospital from injuries suffered Monday night when she was struck by a Hodiamont car at 5400 Suburban tracks. She had been unconscious since the accident.

Mrs. Ralston and her husband, Frank, had attempted to cross the street. They walked behind one car and stepped into the path of a car approach from the opposite direction. She was knocked down, her skull was fractured and her right arm was broken.

Aviator Beachy Exonerated.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 9.—A coroner's jury at Hammondsport exonerated Lincoln Beachy, the aviator, from blame, in the case of Miss Ruth Hildreth of New York, who was killed when Beachey's machine swept several persons from an observation platform at an exhibition flight.

IN ONE MINUTE! CLOGGED NOSTRILS OPEN—COLDS AND CATARRH VANISH

Try "Ely's Cream Balm."

Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it—Apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dullness and headache disappear. By morning! the catarrh, cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone.

End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately.

Don't lie awake tonight struggling for breath, with head stuffed; nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous dropping into the throat, and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless.

Put your faith—just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.—ADV.

JEW ACCUSED OF RELIGIOUS MURDER GOES TO TRIAL

Clerk Alleged to Have Killed Christian Boy, 13, as Part of Ceremony

KIEV, Russia, Oct. 9.—The trial of Mendel Beiliss, accused of the murder of a Christian boy, Andrew Yushinsky, on March 25, 1911, near Kiev, was begun today before a full bench of four judges. Intense interest attaches to the trial because of the previous announcement that the prosecutor would uphold the theory of Jewish ritual murder. The courtroom was crowded to its capacity and the building was surrounded by police. The jury was drawn by lot and consists of peasants with a sprinkling of minor officials.

The mutilated body of Andrew Yushinsky, a 13-year-old boy, was discovered in a small cave in a suburb. The hands were tied behind his back and there were 47 wounds on his body. Beiliss was a clerk in a brick factory nearby.

The courtroom was crowded when the Judges took their seats. The jurymen sleep in the courthouse during the trial and are kept without newspapers or letters until their verdict has been given.

The tables in the corner of the court contained the exhibits to be used in evidence, including dozens of sealed and cloth-bound packages, a large wooden box and a mysterious parcel wrapped in green paper.

The Catholic priest, Pranaites, one of the principal witnesses for the prosecution, occupied a seat in the well of the court next to Rabbi Mase of Moscow.

Rabbis Asked to Swear That Taking of Blood Is Not Permitted.

CHICAGO, Oct. 9.—A cablegram asking that every Rabbi in the world take a solemn oath that there is nothing in the religion of the Jewish Church which would permit the taking of blood in any of its ceremonies, was drafted last night by 22 Chicago Rabbis. It was sent to Magoce, Hungary, to the secretary of the committee appointed by the Jews on trial of Mendel Beiliss, accused of murdering a Christian boy. They took action because of the previous announcement of the prosecutor that he would uphold the theory of a ritual murder. The trial began yesterday at Kiev, Russia.

"The charge of 'ritual murder' made against Jews is a relic of medieval superstititno," said the Rev. Samuel Sale, rabbi of Temple Shaare Emeth, in commenting on the appeal of the Chicago rabbis.

"The same charge was made against the Christians in the persecutions of Tertullians' time, when the Roman populace was caused to believe that the Christians murdered infants as a part of their sacred rites. In the Middle Ages the charge was frequently made against the Jews, often for the purpose of turning away suspicion from the real murderers. In Darkest Russia, where the spirit of the Middle Ages still lives, such bare and barbarous superstition is still used to stir the people to massacre.

"The Chicago rabbis should have the support not only of other Jews but of the civilized nations in their protest. The sacrificing of animals ceased with the destruction of the second temple, and since that time it is absolutely true that there has been no use of blood in the Jewish ceremonial."

$100,000 WILLED TO U. S. GIRL FOR WEDDING MARQUIS

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—That Mrs. May C. Potter Jones, widow of Dr. John Davies Jones, formerly of Morristown, N. J., agreed to settle $100,000 upon her daughter, Miss Martina Potter Jones, provided she marry the Marquis Giuseppe Lanca d'Aneta of Italy, was shown when a copy of Mrs. Jones' will was filed in the Surrogate's office at Morristown.

The marriage of Miss Jones to the Italian nobleman took place in Florence in December, 1904, but at the time no mention was made of a monetary agreement.

The will of Mrs. Jones further brings to light the fact that at the time of the making of the will, she and her daughter, the Marchesa, were not on cordial terms. Although the Marchesa is the only child, the $100,000 given in fulfillment of the agreement at the time of the marriage is willed outright to the daughter. She is also to receive an income of $3000 a year, but the remainder of the estate, which is believed to be large, is left to the children of the nobleman and his American wife.

In cutting off the Marchesa with only a small part of the estate, Mrs. Jones in her will charges that her daughter had neglected and misrepresented her, although she says, "I had done even more than my duty to my daughter."

Mrs. Jones directed in her will that, in case of her death in Italy, she be buried in the Protestant Episcopal Cemetery at Testaccio, Rome, but if in this country, burial be at Cincinnati near the grave of her father.

CAPTURED GENERAL AND STAFF KILLED BY MEXICO REBELS

175 Spaniards Also Reported to Have Been Massacred When Torreon Fell.

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 9.—Confirmation of the execution by the rebels at Torreon of Gen. Alvirez, with his staff and a number of Federal soldiers, has been received by the War Department from unofficial sources. Gen. Alvirez had started for Durango when he was defeated, and his artillery captured by the rebels.

Reports of the massacre in Torreon of 175 Spaniards by the rebels, who captured the city were partly confirmed today by a message from Madera, a town halfway between Torreon and Saltillo. The slaughter is said to have exceeded in horror the massacre of Chinese in the same city during the Madero revolution.

The Spanish Minister to Mexico, Senor Colgan y Cologan, was greatly concerned over the reports and had a long conference with Welson O'Shaughnessy, the American charge, who later made an appointment with the Foreign Minister.

A telegram received today at the United States Embassy from Consul-General Philip C. Hanna at Monterey says that a party of over 300 Americans, Englishmen and other foreigners left Torreon 15 days ago by special train. They are expected at Monterey tonight. The party was heard from yesterday. All were well; one baby had died during the overland journey and another one had been born.

The American charge is convinced of the truth of the capture of Torreon and has so notified Washington.

The rebels are said to be headed by Francisco Villa, whose reported capture and execution by the Federals recently was later disproved. They are said to have swooped down unexpectedly the last of September, the Federals evacuating.

Every effort has been made by the authorities here to keep the news of the affair from the public. The newspapers even failed to print a reference to the persistent rumors of last night. In banking circles, the capture of Torreon was credited and caused a jump of 20 points in the exchange.

MAN WITH ARTIFICIAL LEG FOUND DYING ON LEVEE

Box of Rat Poison in Pocket Cause Police to Believe He Killed Self.

An unidentified man whose left leg, which had been amputated between the knee and hip, had been replaced by an artificial leg, was found dying on the levee at Gratiot street, at 7 a. m. Thursday. An almost empty rat poison box found in his pocket leads the police to believe he killed himself.

Andrew Seineck of 1240 South Third street, found the man and summoned an ambulance, but the man died before the ambulance got there. The body was taken to the morgue. He was apparently about 45 years old, rather stout, about 5 feet 9 inches tall and had a black beard streaked with gray. He wore a dark blue striped suit and black soft hat.

INDIANS GO 150 MILES TO GET BASEBALL SCORE

Northwestern Redskins in Blankets Root for Bender Before Portland Scoreboard.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 9.—Among world's series fans around the bulletin boards here were half a hundred blanketed Indians from the reservations of Oregon and Washington, some of whom had traveled 150 miles to be where they could get the returns quickly.

The Indian players on the two champion teams were the particular magnets of interest to the redskin fans. On Tuesday the Indians all wanted Philadelphia to win because Chief Bender was pitching, and many literally whooped at news of his victory.

New Trial for Mrs. Reuter.

BARTLESVILLE, Ok., Oct. 9.—Mrs. Laura M. Reuter, convicted of complicity in the murder of her husband, Charles T. Reuter, an attorney of Tulsa, has been granted a new trial by Judge Henry Hudson. Mrs. Reuter had been sentenced to prison for life, but her attorneys contended she was convicted on perjured testimony. Judge Hudson said the evidence brought out at the trial did not warrant conviction.

TYPHOID BLOCKED BY 2,500,000,000 GERMS IN BODY

Dead Bacilli Used as Preventive; 500,000,000 Injected in First Treatment.

THREE INJECTIONS GIVEN

Inoculation Against Fever Becomes Widespread in St. Louis, Say Physicians.

Vaccination against typhoid fever, which recently has been found by physicians to be as certain a preventive as vaccination against smallpox, is becoming widespread in St. Louis.

The process is simple. All that is done is to inject two and one-half billion dead typhoid bacilli into the patient's body. This is done in three treatments, at 10-day intervals, the first being only a half billion, for a starter, and the second and third one billion each.

It might be supposed that the interment in one's system of this number of deceased bacilli would at least cause a full feeling like that which sometimes comes after eating. Not so. The patient feels very much as he did before being used as a germ cemetery. Usually there is just enough fever to enhance the appreciation for icewater, but this lasts only a few hours. It is not nearly so uncomfortable as the ordinary effects of smallpox vaccine.

Immunity Not Lifelong.

Like vaccination against smallpox, the typhoid process is not lifelong in its effects. This is partly because typhoid fever is a disease which the same person may have more than once.

But the tests already made of the treatment in the army and navy, and in the armies of European countries, have convinced the physicians that it immunizes absolutely for several years.

Persons who are about to start on journeys, and who are not sure that they will get good water at every stopping place, are good subjects for the anti-typhoid treatment. Many prominent St. Louisans took the injections before leaving for their summer vacations.

The treatment has come to be in such general demand that the large drug houses are kept busy raising and slaughtering the germs. The bodies of a billion typhoid bacilli are rendered into about a teaspoonful of brown liquid, which forms the injection.

St. Louis Behind Other Cities.

Dr. E. W. Saunders, who is a leading advocate of the typhoid inoculation treatment in St. Louis, says this city is not abreast of other cities, or of even smaller communities in taking it up. He says the process was an evolution worked out through so many years that it can hardly be ascribed to any one man. For some years it did not prove satisfactory, only one treatment being used. It was then found, he says, that three treatments would effect complete immunization, and no one is now encouraged to take the treatment who will not take three weeks for it, and return for a second and a third dose.

ASSMAN TO SAIL TODAY IN TRIAL FOR LAHM CUP

St. Louisan Will Make Attempt in Balloon Million Population No. 2.

Albert Bond Lambert of the St. Louis Aero Club, Thursday, received a telegram informing him that William F. Assmann and Joseph O'Reilly, St. Louis aeronauts, had planned to make a balloon flight from Los Angeles, Cal., at 6:30 p. m., Thursday.

The message, which was signed by Assmann, said they would sail in the balloon Million Population No. 2 and would attempt to break all records for a long distance flight, in competition for the Lahm cup.

Unless the cup is lifted within a week it will become the permanent property of Alan R. Hawley of New York, who won it in a flight from St. Louis, in October, 1910. The cup was put up with the condition that anyone holding it three years should become its owner.

NEW YORK CITY MAY GET ALTMAN'S ART TREASURES

Millionaire's Friend Makes Prediction About Merchant's $15,000,000 Collection.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Benjamin Altman's famous art collection, valued at more than $15,000,000, it is reported, may go to the City of New York.

J. G. Kugelman, one of the millionaire merchant's oldest, intimate friends, said he believed personally this disposition would be made.

Altman's legal advisers stated nothing will be said of his business interests, realty holdings or his art works until after the funeral.

Won't Support Mrs. Pankhurst.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 9.—The Nashville Equal Suffrage League has notified the agent of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, English militant suffragette, billed to speak here next month, that the organization will not stand sponsor for her in any sense. "It was decided that local suffragists would bring their cause into great disrepute if they assisted in any way in making Mrs. Pankhurst's lecture a success," says the letter.

Smooth, Hairless Skin Follows This Treatment

(Toilet Tips.)

Among the home-beauty helps, none perhaps is more important than that which will free the skin from obnoxious hairy growths. A simple method to rid the skin of unsightly hairs is to make a paste by mixing powdered delatone with water and applying for about 2 minutes, then rubbing off. With it comes every bit of hair and when the skin is washed it will be firm and free from blemish. Results are more satisfactory if the delatone is bought in an original package.—ADV.

JANNUS GIVES UP TRIAL TO BREAK A RECORD

Aviator Decides Weather Is Unfavorable to Set New Endurance Mark.

After a preliminary flight, which convinced him that weather conditions were not suitable, Anthony Jannus, the St. Louis aviator, Thursday morning abandoned his intention to try to beat the American endurance record of 6 hours and 22 minutes in the air, held by Lieut. Bowers of the U. S. army.

In the preliminary flight, which started from the Catlin tract on Skinker road, just outside Forest Park, Jannus carried 530 pounds, including his gasoline and oil. To try for the record he would have to carry 200 pounds more, because he would need 60 gallons of gasoline, and he decided this would sink the wheels of his plane too deeply into the ground for a satisfactory start.

Jannus, after flights on the river front, at noon, planned to fly between 3:30 and 4:30 on the Catlin tract.

GERMAN THEATER SEASON TO OPEN SUNDAY EVENING

"Sommerspuk" First Offering, With "Andreas Hofer" a Special Bill This Week.

PLAYGOERS' GUIDE

By RIPLEY D. SAUNDERS.

Louis Mann in "Children of Today." Shubert. Satirical comedy purposing to pillory "advanced" young people of the present time, but its authors, Clara Lipman and Samuel Shipman, defeat their own intent by a lamentably puerile treatment of theme, characters and incidents.

Rose Stahl in "Maggie Pepper." Olympic. Return engagement of Charles Klein's effective comedy telling an interesting romance of department store life.

George Sidney in "Busy Izzy." American. Familiar Hebrew title-role figure set in new version of comedy with music. Offering well up to average of its predecessors.

"Mummy and Humming Bird." Marguerite Clark. Creditable stock company presentation of Clyde Fitch comedy, telling story of a wife's rescue from the tempting of a masculine "love pirate" of familiar stage aspect.

"Girl of the Mountains." La Salle. Society melodrama with appealing love story and several effective situations.

Vaudeville. Columbia. Bill headed by Lillian Lorraine in new songs.

Vaudeville. Hippodrome. Bill headed by Tillie Zick, danseuse.

Vaudeville. Grand Opera House. Bill headed by McMahon's Pullman Porter Maids.

Welch's Burlesquers. Standard. Burlesque and vaudeville.

The Tango Girls. Gayety. Burlesque and vaudeville.

The new season of the German Stock Company opens next Sunday night at the Victoria Theater with the great comedy success of German student life, entitled "Sommerspuk," a play on the order of "Alt Heidelberg," though not serious like the latter, but full of humor. Present indication point to the likelihood of this being the most brilliant company which the German Theater in St. Louis has engaged in many a year.

On Friday evening of this week there will be a festival performance of the great new liberty drama, "Andreas Hofer," to be given in honor of the centennial celebration of German liberty. Special attention is called to the fact that the curtain will rise at 7:30 sharp on that evening.

In "Sommerspuk" next Sunday night Miss Helene Koch, new leading lady, late of the Court Theater in Darmstadt, will make her St. Louis debut in a very interesting role, also the new leading man, Hans Gregory; the new juvenile, Richard Leuch, and the comedian, Fredi Ambrogio. The old favorites of the company also will be in the cast.

Manager Loebel has secured not only the best playing talent obtainable, but also the most successful plays of the past season in the Fatherland. The ticket sale for the entire season will be at the Victoria Theater box office every week, Wednesday having been its opening day, and also at Max Zapf's store, 110 North Sixth street, daily. Box office phones, Lindell 4485 and Delmar 1432.

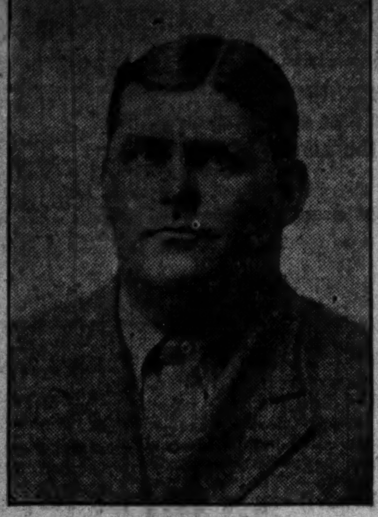
Business Man From Kansas City, Kas., Gives Strong Personal Endorsement

Mr. M. H. Bidwelll Says Plant Juice Has Given Him Great Results and He Can Recommend It to Others.



M. H. BIDWELL.

Mr. M. H. Bidwell, who lives at 430 North Twenty-ninth street, Kansas City, Kansas, is another well-known man who can and does endorse Plant Juice. Mr. Bidwell has been a resident of Kansas City for twenty-five years and has been in business at the Stock Yards for fifteen years, and is well known in Kansas City and elsewhere. He says:

"Plant Juice has certainly given me great results. I have had a bad stomach trouble for 10 years. I could not digest my food and a sort of sour gas would form on my stomach. My only relief was to take soda four or five times a day and often at night before I could get to sleep. Since taking Plant Juice I have entirely discontinued the soda and have no more trouble with my stomach. My appetite is good and I sleep well at night and am feeling fine in every way. I certainly can recommend Plant Juice to anybody afflicted with stomach trouble."

Plant Juice gives quick and lasting results in all ailments of the stomach, often relieving indigestion from the first dose. Those who suffer from sour stomach, gas or bloating after meals, a feeling of weight in the stomach, no appetite, constipation, billiousness, malaria, nervousness, insomnia, poor circulation, pains in the back or joints, should get a bottle of Plant Juice from the man at the Wolff-Wilson Drug Co. store, Sixth and Washington. If it does not help you he will return your money.—ADV.

PIGSKIN BEST FOR GRAFTING ON HUMAN BEINGS

Doctor Says Deep Shaving Will Avoid the Growing of Bristles.

By Associated Press.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 9.—One of the latest martyrs to science is the pig. If he be healthy, he is in danger of being seized, etherized, scrubbed, disinfected, shaved and peeled in order to save human life. For the little pig, Dr. C. S. Venable of San Antonio, Tex., told the Medical Association of the Southwest at its convention here last night, has just been discovered to be the best existing source of supply for skin for grafting purposes.

"I believe that in the future it will not be necessary for people to give up their skin for the sake of others," Dr. Venable said. "My experiments have shown that the skin from swine taken when the animals are from 2 to 6 months old can be grafted upon humans more successfully than the skin of another human being.

"The grafting of pigskin is successful in 75 to 100 per cent of the attempts. The skin of other animals and of humans averages only 32 to 50 per cent of 'takes.' By a deep shaving process the probability of the transplanted skin growing bristles is avoided."

RICH CHINESE WHO HAD HAD 2 WHITE WIVES, IS SLAIN

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 9.—Oriental revenge was the only motive to which the police could ascribe the murder of Charles Sing, a wealthy naturalized Chinese merchant, whose body, with the head nearly severed, was found in Sing's third floor room on the North Side today.

The Oriental apparently had been dead at least 48 hours. The body lay on the floor, covered with a heap of bed clothing. An eight-inch butcher knife, with the sharp edge of the blade turned up, lay in the wound in the throat.

In the same room two years ago the body of Sing's American wife, Grace Kelly Sing, was found with a bullet in the head. The Coroner pronounced it suicide.

Sing's legs were paralyzed and he was a recluse. His crutches were found leaning against the wall in the hall outside the room. The milkman, receiving no answer to his knock this morning, entered the room which Sing never kept locked and found the body.

The police in the beginning discarded suicide and robbery theories. Sing, they said, could not have cut himself, withdrawn the knife and returned it to the wound upside down. There were no signs of a struggle or of the room having been ransacked. Thick dust lay undisturbed on furniture and casings. Much of his property was in real estate. A bank book on the dresser showed Sing had a balance of nearly $8000.

Sing was not known to have enemies unless among his own race. He twice had married white women. His association with Americans and his success in a business way are said to have aroused jealousy among other Chinese.

Happy homes are those in which "BUCK'S" Stoves and Ranges are used.

STUDENTS GAG GIRL, BEAT AND SMEAR HER WITH PAINT

Young Woman Dragged by Hair to Cemetery and Forced to Dance on Headstones.

ACCUSES SYRACUSE U. MAN

Made to Drink Liquid Like Turpentine, Then Kicked and Left Unconscious.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Oct. 9.—Mrs. Elizabeth Anderson, 22 years old, employed as a cook at the Phi Delta Theta chapter house in this city, told the police she had been smeared with paint, gagged and beaten into insensibility last night on University Hill by two men, one of whom, she said, was a Syracuse University sophomore.

The young woman says she was seized in the yard at the rear of the house and dragged by the hair to Oakwood Cemetery, where she was forced to drink something that tasted like turpentine and made to dance on the headstones. She says the buckle end of a heavy strap was applied to her at intervals when she refused to follow the directions of her captors and her body was covered with bruises and cuts.

Though Mrs. Anderson said she knew who her assailants were she would divulge no names, alleging that they had threatened a repetition of the attack in the event that she "squealed." The sophomore she accused is not a fraternity man. The police expect to apprehend the men.

When seen today Mrs. Anderson lay on her bed in the Chapter house suffering from an aching head and back. It seemed difficult for her to talk. She said:

"I had an appointment with Prof. Binning last evening at Mystique Krewe Hall and had gone down town early in the evening. I am a pianist and have frequently played with the orchestra of which Prof. Binning is leader.

Dragged by Her Hair.

"Not finding the Professor at the hall, I returned to the Chapter house, arriving home about 8 o'clock. A few moments later I went into the back yard to remove some clothes from the line. As I was removing the clothes one of the young men ran up behind me, striking me over the head with his fist. I screamed, but my cries were not heard. The man placed his hand over my mouth to prevent me making more of an outcry. His companion then appeared on the scene and the two grabbed me by the hair and dragged me five blocks to Oakwood cemetery.

"Leading me into the cemetery they proceeded to a far corner of the grounds. They had me blindfolded and my hands tied. Then they smeared me with white paint, the stuff being soaked into my hair and it dripped down over my face, hands and clothes. The cloth over my eyes was removed and a glass of bitter liquid given to me to drink. I refused and pleaded with the men to release me. My pleadings were of no avail and I was knocked down, my nose held and the liquid poured into my mouth. Just what the liquid was I was unable to say.

Kicked and Left Unconscious.

"I was next ordered to mount one of the monuments in the cemetery. Belting me with the strap, the men finally forced me to climb to the top of the monument. With more stinging lashes of the strap buckle I was forced to dance on the top of the monument. This continued more than 10 minutes. Then I was ordered to jump from the top of the monument to the ground. This I refused to do until the men pushed me from the high stone.

"Again I pleaded with my captors to release me, but they only struck me with the belt and answered: 'It's just a little fresh medicine.' I kicked one of the men and then he returned to the attack, kicking me. I fell to the ground and groaned. Fearing that the kick had been serious, the men left me and ran.

"Recovering my senses, I started to leave the cemetery. For more than an hour I walked about the cemetery looking for a gate. About midnight I found my way out of the grounds, and after walking about an hour reached the chapter house."

FARMER DEFIES DROUTH, GETS BIG CORN CROP

Illinoisan Plants Kernels 10 Inches Deep and They Yield 65 Bushels an Acre.

CARMI, Ill., Oct. 9.—John Krimbell, a farmer living east of Carmi, is harvesting a 100-acre field of corn that was planted to withstand the drouth and did. Kimbrell planted the kernels under 10 inches of soil. Ordinarily corn is covered to a depth of four inches. Neighbors predicted the corn would not germinate, but a fairly good stand resulted. Kimbrell also planted 20 acres in the same field, covering it four inches. The deep-planted corn is yielding 65 bushels of fine corn to the acre, while the shallow-planted is making less than 30 bushels.

Farmers from Indiana, Kentucky and Illinois have gone to the field to examine and verify Kimbrell's claims.

"TOMMY ROT" SONGS IN CHURCH ARE DENOUNCED

Missionary Editor Hopes Strong Hymns Will Replace the 'I and Me' Kind.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—"Tommy rot" songs in church hymnals were denounced by the Rev. Dr. G. F. Sutherland, missionary editor of the publications of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in an address before the church's Sunday-school conference of the Baltimore conference.

"The 'tommy rot' songs that are sometimes sung in our churches are worse than no songs at all," said Dr. Sutherland. "I can find no expression that better characterizes them. I hope time will soon come when these songs that sing us into selfishness—the 'I and me' kind—will be replaced in our hymnal by the strong songs that breathe a spirit of helpfulness and service."

GOT INDIGESTION? STOMACH UPSET OR BELCHING UP GAS OR SOUR FOOD?

You can eat anything your stomach craves without fear of indigestion or dyspepsia, or that your food will ferment or sour on your stomach, if you will take Pape's Diapepsin occasionally.

Anything you eat will be digested; nothing can ferment or turn into acid, poison or stomach gas, which causes belching, dizziness, a feeling of fullness after eating, nausea, indigestion (like a lump of lead in stomach), biliousness, heartburn, water brash, pain in stomach and intestines. Headaches from stomach are absolutely unknown where Pape's Diapepsin is used. It really does all the work of a healthy stomach. It digests your meals when your stomach can't. It leaves nothing to ferment, sour and upset the stomach.

Get a large 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from your druggist, then eat anything you want without the slightest discomfort or misery, besides, every particle of impurity and gas that is in your stomach and intestines will vanish.

Should you be suffering now from indigestion or any stomach disorder, you can get relief in five minutes.—ADV.

The insurance adjusters in the United States paid out last year $16,199,400.00 to cover fire losses on buildings, due to defective heating devices. Any fire insurance agent will tell you that the safest possible kind of heating is by

AMERICAN RADIATORS & IDEAL BOILERS

Ask your fire insurance man. Likely as not he is also your local real-estate agent and can tell you of the rapidly increasing installation in his locality of IDEAL Boilers and AMERICAN Radiators, knowing by experience of their absolute safety and reliability. All working parts of IDEAL Boilers and AMERICAN Radiators are backed by water (the joints are of heavy iron which screw tightly together), and their use therefore eliminates the danger of fire. The flimsy old-fashioned heating equipments used in this country are not permitted in the comparatively fire-free cities of Great Britain, Germany, etc. But IDEAL-AMERICAN outfits are accepted and endorsed everywhere; greatest safety, as well as comfort and economy.

That is why our outfits are also used to warm powder and dynamite factories, government forts and battleships, etc. IDEAL Boilers are much easier and safer to run than a parlor stove—fill with coal twice per day in zero weather; add two or three buckets of water during the heating season to keep system full; remove ashes every other day. You can burn the cheapest soft coal, pea coal, screenings, wood, oil, gas, etc., at a fuel-saving which soon pays for outfit.

To make your house or building a safe, valuable, ever-marketable asset for yourself or your family heirs, investigate at once. Write to-day of the kind and size of building you wish to heat and safeguard, and we will send you the full facts. Puts you under no obligation to buy.

A No. 2118 IDEAL Boiler and 270 sq. ft. of 38-in. AMERICAN Radiators, costing the owner $140, were used to heat this cottage. At this price the goods can be bought of any reputable, competent Fitter. This did not include cost of labor, pipes, valves, freight, etc., which are extra, and vary according to climatic and other conditions.

IDEAL Boilers and AMERICAN Radiators change any house into a home.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Poland's Past Glory.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Poland, the least known and most misunderstood of all European nations; a patient, forgiving, lovable, Christian-spirited race; neither bigoted, austere nor narrow-minded in religion, nor yet loose or profligate in morals. Industrious individually and collectively, yet with no instinct to barter, petty practice in trade as is dominant among the Hebrew or Arabian. Honest and loyal to a fault yet resourceful in time of peril, displaying foolish courage at times and brave cowardice at others. Oppressed for centuries, the love of nationhood still persists in their breasts. Ridiculed on all sides in Europe, laughed at in America, they are still proud of their ancestry, and insist upon being called Poles or more common here, Polanders—or even Polacks (this being a sort of superlative degree of contempt).

Big, husky, virile men; strong prolific women, with no fear in their mind of too many children (some rear 13 to 15 children), usually eight or nine is the average, and as a rule live long. Intelligent beyond the average, yet passive in the use of knowledge. Quick tempered and volatile, highly nervous, withal remarkably selfcontrolled. A curious race. A race, which under proper government, education, and stimulus, would produce a world of genii.

Yet the very fact that all Poles possess these qualities is the reason for German oppression, Russian tyranny and Austrian coercion. No person of these three nations is the equal (all advantages considered) of an individual Pole, physically, morally or intellectually, hence the reason for Poland's plight—mere jealousy.

Poland was a homogenous nation when Russia was a barbaric nation—which Russia is yet. Germany was unknown, Austria was a mere principality.

Poland and liberty are synonymous. The first republic of modern times was founded in Poland. This in 1675. The nation was 200 years ahead of the times. Hence the titled despots of Europe combined to supress this advanced nation, which so menaced royalty.

At the time the Puritans landed in America, Poland was in its glory, and at its political zenith, justly earned by saving the parsiminous kings of Europe from Turkish invasion.

So much for Poland. PAUL A. KOWALSKI.

Wrong Police Methods.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Mrs. Louis Laffold's husband is charged with passing counterfeit money. But Mrs. Laffold herself is presumably innocent. Proof of her ignorance of wrongdoing by her husband seems to be shown in the fact that she aided a patrolman all Thursday afternoon and Friday to find Mr. Laffold, and freely gave the police authorities information as to the whereabouts of her husband's "pal."

Meanwhile, for two whole days the police were wilfully deceiving this distressed wife into thinking that they were aiding her in her search for her missing breadwinner, whom they had safely under lock and key all the time. The only excuse was that they wished to locate the "pal." "Mrs. Laffold," says the news, "was still looking for her husband Saturday, at the time he was being arraigned in court."

We may not, perhaps, expect policemen to be gentle at all times, but they should not be encouraged in lying, especially to women in distress. It is a strange fact that not one St. Louis newspaper condemned this action by the police.

A READER.

The Zoological Society's Bill.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

My attention has just been called to an editorial which appears in your paper Wednesday afternoon and which we feel is a decided misrepresentation of the bill the Zoological Society is fostering to create a zoo in Forest Park, and I am therefore taking the liberty of writing you in the hope that you will correct same in your paper.

Your editorial leads the public to believe that the two commissioners to be appointed by the Mayor are to receive salaries, when the bill specifically states that they are to serve without compensation.

Next, you state that the superintendent and secretary are to receive salaries amounting to $3600 annually. The superintendent is now receiving $1200, and the bill provides he is to receive $2400, which is little enough for his hazardous work. A secretary may not be required for a number of years, but we are looking to the future. From this you will see that the increased cost really only amounts to $1200 annually. You also accuse the society of creating political jobs, which is not true.

I wish to state positively that Park Commissioner Davis' flat refusal to permit a zoo in any of the city parks, or to allow buildings, or the expansion of the present zoo in Forest Park, is our only reason for introducing a bill creating a zoological garden to be managed by a commission.

GEORGE E. DIECKMAN, President.

"SOCIALISTIC!"

As patriotism was said by old Dr. Johnson to be the last refuge of scoundrels, so in our time and country "un-American" and "Socialism" have become the last refuge and despairing cry of privilege battling from behind its innermost trenches.

Tariff reform was always most "un-American," and "Socialistic" when about to succeed. The income tax was "un-American" and "Socialistic." It was the cry last heard when the American people were about to force the railroads under national regulation. It was the defense last raised against the anti-trust law and its enforcement. It has been the shriek of privilege in other forms at the last stand against the forces of equal rights and equal opportunity.

We count it, therefore, a happy augury of the administration's bank and currency reform bill that the vice-president of the American Bankers' Association should solemnly pronounce it "un-American" and that the currency commission of that association should as solemnly pronounce it "Socialistic." Stronger evidence than this could hardly be had that the bill would be effective in breaking up the Wall street domination over the country's banking credit and is headed for enactment.

If it is "Socialistic" to make compulsory, instead of optional, bankers' compliance with certain wise conditions affecting the capital, earnings and investments of banks, then the "extreme to which Socialism can be carried" is found in the laws under which national banks are now operating, rather than in the currency bill. Socialism as enforced under Abraham Lincoln caused the original national bank act to compel banks organized under it to subscribe 33 1-3 per cent of their capital to Government bonds.

State banks forced out of the lucrative note-issuing business by the 10 per cent tax made frantic protests and tried to render the law a failure. The act having proved a success, bankers do not find it "very hard to accept and ratify" the conditions once rejected. They highly approve them now. The old obstruction is revived only when a new measure making a still further bank advance is planned.

It is not Socialistic to fix a safe minimum on the capital with which a bank can begin business. That minimum is $25,000 now. If experience should prove it is too low, a measure providing directly for a 10 or 20 per cent increase would not be Socialistic. And a measure is not Socialistic because it provides indirectly for such an increase and prescribes how the increase shall be invested.

This is not the feature to which the bankers seriously object. The provision most offensive is the one regulating them by a Government-appointed board, as railroads are regulated, instead of permitting them to regulate themselves. With this modified, the "Socialistic" quality they affect to discover in other features would instantly disappear.

BLEASE IMPROVES HIS SLOGAN.

If Gov. Blease had not cried "To hell with the Constitution!" we should be loath to believe the Washington news that he has adopted as a slogan: "Plenty of good horse racing, plenty of honest poker and plenty of good chicken fighting."

There is this to be said for it—that plenty of good horse racing is better than plenty of bad horse racing, honest poker is better than the cold deck kind, and good chicken fighting is infinitely superior to poor chicken fighting. Likewise, we presume that plenty of good whisky drinking is better than plenty of bad whisky drinking, honest dice throwing is preferable to loaded dice throwing, and so on down through the category of manly dissipations. The slogan has this weakness, though, that it can be added to until it damns itself. As a vote-getter we fear it will not appeal to many church members.

Even at that we must say that we admire it more than we do "To hell with the Constitution!"

The plea that a public legal aid bureau is as necessary as a public health department appears reasonable when one considers that mental health frequently hangs on the ability to defend oneself against injustice by legal procedure.

"CITY COMMISSION" A MISNOMER.

Only one city in the United States is governed by a commission. That city is Washington, the national capital. The commission is named by the President, the Senate approving.

All other so-called "commission cities" are in fact governed by councils elected by the people.

The phrase "commission government" originated in Galveston. The Island City's first government organized after the storm of 1900 was in fact a commission government, since a majority of the members of its one-chamber Council were appointed by the Governor of Texas, as provided in the act creating the new government. Texas courts soon thereafter ruled, in a test suit, that the charter was unconstitutional; that it was the right and duty of the people of Galveston to elect all of the members of their City Council; that appointments by the Governor were invalid. Whereupon Galveston obtained a new charter, complying with the Court's decision.

Opposition to the new plan, engendered in the beginning because it was proposed as a means of taking out of the people's hands the choice of their City Councilmen, was very bitter, and has persisted to this day. It accounts for much of the unreasoning opposition to the plan, which appears in any city proposing to adopt it. Error, once popularized, dies hard. The application of the misnomer, "commission government," to the most effective and most genuinely democratic form of city organization yet developed in this country is unfortunate.

The plan, adopted since 1900 by 286 cities, of which Joplin, Mo., was the latest to fall into line, needs a name fitly expressing its merits.

ROYAL MONEY-BORROWING.

Prince Joachim of Germany has sued two Berlin newspapers for libel because they printed gossip about his facility for contracting debts. Of course he can ask only exemplary damages. Actual damages to one in the Prince business could hardly be claimed. Indeed, it is rather expected of a Prince that he shall run up debts and even strain the limit of his line of credit. Not a few of the old royalties of Germany and other countries were represented as caught in the clutches of the loan sharks of their time and seemed to suffer no actionable diminution in their standing. Some of them were in the habit of negotiating forced loans from unfortunate subjects. Joachim's great Uncle Edward of England did not run on any no-trust, strictly cash basis. He had a delicacy in touch much commented on and newspapers showed no hesitancy in recording that his debts had to be paid for him several times.

The divine right must indeed be in a decline if those of the purple are expected to pay as they go. Democracy is making progress when even a Prince shows sensitiveness to a denial of the same homely virtues deemed an ornament in a commoner.

POOR MEN IN CITY POLITICS.

It is argued, against adoption of the single-chamber assembly elected from the city at large, that the cost of canvassing the whole of a large city would debar a poor man from running for office.

Analysis of the facts involved, as well as experience of the cities in which this form of government has been adopted, disproves this argument.

Under the ward system, a ward political machine, usually financed by and subservient to the allied liquor and public utility interests, can and often does determine who shall represent the ward in the city government. If a poor man goes up it is, in many cases, prima facie proof he has made his peace with these overshadowing special interests.

Under the city-at-large plan no candidate need submit to dictation by these or any other special interests. His appeal is to the large majority of citizens, in the city as a whole, who owe no allegiance to any special interest.

The poor man of real ability can get his ideas before the people through the daily press. He can at cost of a nickel carfare visit any portion of the city and meet its voters. If his ideas appeal to any large number of voters, he will raise up friends who will provide place and occasion for him to address them.

In many of the cities which have single-chamber government, miscalled "commission government," printers, mechanics, small business men and others from the ranks have won against men of wealth by convincing the voters of their superior fitness for public service.

THE OLD-FASHIONED THRILLER.

Aviation is an exciting sport, as Beachey again proved day before yesterday by killing a girl. But what shall we say of baseball, considering the spectators who dropped dead yesterday? No new amusement can hope to surpass the old-fashioned thrillers with the American public.

THE WINNING POSTAL BANK.

The admission of President R. C. Stephenson of the savings bank section of the national bankers' organization that much of the money in postal banks would otherwise not be deposited and that opposition to them should be abandoned is significant. It sustains an argument repeatedly urged during the long years the establishment of postal banks was resisted. Postal banks help private banking by attracting from the sock money which is then redeposited with chartered banks.

Increase to $1000 in the postal bank limit of $500 on deposits will be vigorously pressed by the department, according to Assistant Postmaster Dockery's statement while in St. Louis. This change and the one permitting checks to be drawn on any office by a depositor at one office would strengthen the system.

QUESTION.

If a theoretical question can be raised now among lawyers and officials respecting the validity of a senatorial election under the existing laws of Missouri, the same question might conceivably be raised between politicians at the time of a primary when factional feeling should be running high.

The same question might conceivably be raised in the United States Senate after election if partisanship should be on edge and the question of party control should be involved in the seating of the man from Missouri.

What shall Missouri do with the question?

POKING FUN.

A few days ago the valued New York Herald amused itself by "poking fun," as it explains, at St. Louis, calling attention to some of our notable local features. The Post-Dispatch good-naturedly replied by asking, "What is New York chiefly noted for nowadays—Father Schmidt, Harry Thaw, the police force, Sulzer, Murphy, and a couple of decomposed plays?" The fun-loving Herald does not attempt to answer our question, but playfully rejoins:

> Now, to show that there is no hard feeling, we would like to say that when we print things about other cities we aim to do them good. We would to St. Louis say that it is the only city in the country that submits to a bridge monopoly which charges each visitor 25 cents to get in and 25 cents to get out. It is the only city that permits a monopoly known as the "Terminal" to hold up commerce for a radius of 100 miles in defiance of the Supreme Court of the United States, just as the feudal freebooters of old exacted illegal toll.
> One resident of that city with a fine sense of humor suggests that the Herald offer to send Charles F. Murphy to reform St. Louis. Mr. Murphy would be the innocent traveler who fell among thieves. What could he do for St. Louis if the Supreme Court of the United States is powerless?

Just to show that there is no hard feeling on our part either, we wish to remark that Murphy's innocence is better suited to the charming provincialism of little old New York—he would fare ill in a town big enough to manhandle a mere political boss. St. Louis has several hides as good as Murphy's nailed on its barn door. On the other hand, when it comes to Terminal monopolies—what is Manhattan island but a railroad wharf?

BLEST BE THE INDIAN SUMMER.

BLEST be the Indian Summer,
  When the heart makes a song
For sweetness and beauty
  The highway along!
For the soft, mellow days
  And the scintillant rime
Of frost in the morning—
  Blest be the time!

GLORY of night,
  And the great Hunter's Moon!
The freshness of Spring,
  And the splendor of June!
Promises beckon,
  And memories throng—
Blest be the time

ON JAILING CRANKS.

A judge in Seattle made the great mistake of trying to jail all the cranks in that town. The town turned against him; he was reviled by his associates on the bench, and on Monday he surrendered and let 37 cranks out. Six of them were women.

The fact of the matter is that all men are cranks, and had the Seattle jurist continued upon his wild career he would have had the doubtful pleasure in the end of closing the jail door on himself. He saw his finish when it developed that the other judges were cranks. A crank himself, he persisted feebly, but in the end collapsed.

Cranks cannot be jailed just because they are cranks. Even beginning with pronounced types, as the Seattle judge did, it only arouses the ire of cranks of the next degree and ultimately involves all humankind. The safety of all cranks lies in numbers.

ARTIST KNOWLES.

Artist Knowles, who went into the Maine woods early in the summer in the costume of the naked truth, has returned to civilization.

We followed Artist Knowles with faith in his experiment up to the point where he explained that he was sending his story out on birchbark. In an unfortunate moment for romance and adventure, we began figuring on the probable quantity of birchbark he required for one of his stories. As this began to run into bulk and we considered that bulk in its relation to the meager transportation facilities in the Maine woods—um—er—

Anyhow, he is back.

The omission and commission forms of government competed at the polls in two Missouri cities this week. O. won at Springfield and com at Joplin.

A MONTANA MISSIONARY.

A Baptist missionary gives in a recent number of Missions the following general idea of how he bags the heathen out in the Montana sheep country:

"* * * About 5 p. m. we arrived at Wright's sheep ranch. The proprietor had little use for preachers. Knowing his feeling, I pondered just how to get next to the heart of that man and his men. When we arrived the men were all at the sorting pens. I unhitched and waited around until I saw Mr. Wright riding up. Went out to meet him. Joked until I had things straight. I knew everybody would be tired after a day's sorting sheep, so I volunteered to start supper. He rode off a little distance and, turning, yelled back that there would be nine men for supper. For me to cook for nine hungry men was no easy task. But to fail would be to lose my grip; to succeed would bring glory to the cause. So hustling to the house, I set Perry and Campbell peeling potatoes. I started the fire and got the pots and frying pans flying around. Luck would have it the new rifle that Mr. Treat gave me had brought down six sage hens that afternoon. And here is the menu I served up: Fried potatoes, fried sage hen and milk gravy, hot biscuits (made them myself), and as good coffee as the sheep herders ever drank. The ranchers were mine after supper although before eating many looks of suspicion were thrown my way. God gave me victory and the cause was furthered so that I have a warm welcome awaiting me when I go back and I am sure souls will be won. Preachers appear in a different light to those men now."

The judge who was running wild in Seattle has recalled his reason.

HOBOS' FUNERAL FOR A DOG.

From the Kansas City Times.

An unkempt line of men trailed behind a rickety express wagon that creaked its way up "Hobo Hill," a shack-covered clay bank in the slum quarter of the North Side, today, following to its grave all that remained of "Snowball," a nondescript terrier, known and loved by all the human derelicts who have frequented the cheap lodging houses of North Main street in the last five years.

"Here lies Snowball, the hobos' friend. May he rest in peace."

These words were roughly scrawled in crayon on the homemade coffin in the express wagon, and painted on the smooth side of the wooden slab that was driven into the ground at the grave's head.

Snowball was run over and mangled by a street car in front of the Helping Hand Institute last night. The dog, covered with sleet frozen to his hair, slipped into a cheap North Side saloon one winter night five years ago. The floating class of men that frequent the district adopted him, taught him tricks, fought over him and for him, and often put in their nickels to bail him out of the pound.

GOOD ROADS DAYS NOT ENOUGH.

From the Engineering Record.

The "good roads days" in Missouri, last week, attracted attention the country over. Judging by most reports, the chief benefit deemed to be derived consists in the actual work done—the number of miles graded and graveled. Undoubtedly a small army can, if properly directed, effect a temporary improvement in two working days. But there are disadvantages as well. The chief one is that these days will engender the notion that highway work is extremely simple and that it consists solely in filling up ruts. The value of drainage—so essential to good dirt roads—is likely to be overlooked. Moreover, spasmodic efforts are likely to leave the impression that occasional efforts are sufficient to keep roads in good condition. Bitter experience should teach road users that such is not the case, but the omission in highway laws of provision for maintenance is so general that something besides occasional good roads days is necessary to inculcate sound ideas on highway management.

OUTLOOK ON SUGAR OUTLOOK.

From the Outlook.

I do not doubt the sincerity of those who speak so dolefully about free sugar. In all probability the planters of Louisiana will find means to grow more sugar on an acre than they have been doing and will make more money than ever, just as Texas has with cotton since the boll weevil came. The cheap labor in the West Indies is a mere bugaboo. Cultivation is cheaper here; mule labor costs less than a third of the price of negro labor there. The hands working in the business are certainly cheap, but they are a small portion of the laborers employed on a sugar estate. The only advantage West Indian planters have is that they have no high tariff. Consequently, they can get American machinery for 60 per cent of what is paid in Louisiana. The Sugar Trust is another bugaboo. If the powers that be let it alone and it tries such tricks as predicted, Europe would be delighted to do some more refining and undersell it.

Police "Masher" Squads.

From the San Francisco Post.

Kansas City has a beauty squad of policemen dressed as women to arrest "mashers" on the street. Will they ogle the men or wait until they are accosted? It was Thomas Hardy, the English novelist, who said he "had never observed that the spider was invariably male and the fly invariably female."

His Gold Drowned Him.

From the Portland Oregonian.

Fred Martini of Portland, who was on his way home to be married, fell from a barge near the mouth of the Koyuku River, Sept. 5, and was drowned.

Martini carried several thousand dollars in gold on his person, and the metal weighted him down.

Sinclair Unwelcome.

From the Philadelphia Telegraph.

"Not wanted" was the greeting Upton Sinclair received at Arden. The Jungleer now probably agrees with Cipriano Castro that "There are no real rewards in this life for the true servants of the ideal."

DATES.

A. C.—Veiled Prophet parade, 1911, was on Oct. 3.

PRESTON.—The rising of the Conemaugh River, Pennsylvania, under incessant rain, caused the breaking of the dam about 18 miles above Johnstown on May 31, 1889. The great mass of water rushed down on the city in seven minutes, and at the Pennsylvania railroad bridge near the city it became dammed up, greatly increasing the loss of life and collecting a large mass of debris, which afterward took fire and added further to the destruction. Official reports after the disaster placed the number of lives lost at 2142, and the value of property destroyed at $9,674,105. Nearly $3,000,000 was raised for the relief of the sufferers, contributions being sent from nearly every state and large city in the country, and from several cities in Europe. In the distribution of the relief the sum of $1000 was given to each of the 124 women made widows and $50 annually until they should reach the age of 16 was assigned to each of the 565 children made orphans or half orphans. A young woman, who was a telegraph operator, sent messages over the wire until her own life was swept away, her last words being: "This is my last message."

LAW POINTS.

ANDREWS.—Lights in apartment house halls must be kept burning all night.

C. D.—If your income is under $3000, and partly derived from dividends, you are exempt from the income tax. The companies whose stocks you hold will be taxed under the corporation tax law, but no deduction will be made in your dividend check on this account.

W. F. W.—Unless otherwise provided in will, the heirs can mortgage and sell their interests and bring a partition suit; in the latter case, property is sold by a commissioner at public sale and the proceeding is a costly one. The better plan is for the other two heirs to secure a mortgage in amount sufficient to buy out this dissatisfied heir, if such can be procured, and from what you state see no reason why it cannot be.

J. J. B.—It was lawful to shoot ducks from motor boats on the Missouri side of the Mississippi River under the State game law, which has never prohibited it. The practice was stopped by the Federal law, which went into effect Oct. 1, 1913. Under this law, which takes precedence over the State law, one cannot shoot any migratory bird on the Mississippi River or from its banks. The river is reserved for migration from Minneapolis to Memphis. It is considered that beyond Memphis the ducks and other birds have so much water in all the country around that it is not necessary to keep the river open for them. One may still shoot ducks from a motor boat on the Missouri River from its mouth to Nebraska City, Neb. Beyond that point there is no other water for migration, whereas on the lower river there is a parallel highway along the Mississippi.

THE PLATINUM MYSTERY.

CURIOUS.—Gold as a mounting for precious stones in high class jewelry has almost disappeared. In the Fifth avenue shops one can look over hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of ornaments without seeing anything but a platinum mounting. This has resulted in a tremendously increased demand for that metal, which naturally would have put the price up, especially as the supply is limited. But to make matters worse from the point of view of the buyer, the automobile makers cornered the platinum market because they need it and need it badly in their business. Platinum is an essential metal in the making of the magneto, and the demand from auto makers coming simultaneously with the rage for platinum mountings in jewelry is sending the price up by almost daily increases. It now costs dealers twice as much as gold. Whereas the latter metal can be bought around 75 cents a pennyweight, platinum costs $1.25 to $1.50. But platinum mounted jewelry is even more expensive relatively because it is so much more difficult to work. Gold, being quite soft, is always alloyed with some other metal before being used as a mounting for precious stones. Platinum seems as hard as steel in comparison. It is not alloyed but is used pure, which helps to account for the difference in price. In the case of lorgnettes, for instance, those which are not set with stones show how gold has yielded first place, and by a large margin too. In them the entire value is in the metal mountings, and platinum ones cost at least three times as much as the gold ones. But while the turn of fashion doubtless has much to do with the vogue of the former, there is more than mere caprice to recommend it. Platinum is more durable because of its hardness. It never tarnishes; if you have an alleged platinum mounting that tarnishes you may be sure you have been cheated and that it is silver, a piece of deceit that is often practiced by foreign jewelers in selling to tourists. And it is the ideal setting for stones, especially for diamonds, as the color harmonizes better than the yellow of gold does and also has the happy faculty of making a gem set in it look larger than it really is.—New York Sun.

J. W. K. H.—A St. Louis scholar, who says your question is one of the hardest of about 20 centuries, thus answers it: Your mottos, "Human Rights for Human Beings," and "Equal Rights for All," belong to the English language, and you would better keep them in English. They cannot be translated into Latin, though they can be paraphrased into it. Roman civilization fell because the ideas of your mottoes had not been fully enough defined to have Latin words exactly defining human rights and personal rights. "Fas" is what the gods allow. "Jus" is "right," but the idea in it belongs both to "law" and to what is ordered. Cicero's Latin for "equal rights for all" is "Jura omnibus paria." "Jura sua omnibus aequa" is more American. A paraphrase for the other motto is "Humano generi detur quicquid jus est humani," or "Generi humano suum jus humanum." You have asked for a definition of civilization in two Latin sentences. It is only through the English language in America that civilization is beginning to be defined. Stick to English.

MARIA.—Buffet luncheon: Invitations may be your visiting card, with date and hour of luncheon engraved or written. Two or more courses are served, the first hot, consisting of fish or chicken croquettes, peas and rolls, or something similar in selection. For instance, instead of peas, there may be creamed potatoes or asparagus and the meat prepared independent of croquette accessories. A salad with beaten biscuit or wafers follows and serving concludes with coffee or chocolate. The menu here given is for forenoon entertainment. When announced for usual reception hours, ice cream is added to the serving. Guests are seated at a buffet luncheon, while at a reception they are served while standing. Refreshments at receptions are similar with tea and punch tables in hall and living room, while in the dining room the serving consists of a salad, thin slices of bread and butter, ice cream, cake and coffee. Quite often the salad and bread are omitted. Hostess is at liberty to add to or take from the serving, according to her inclination.

A SPLENDID PLOT

By AUGUSTUS GOODWIN SHERWIN.

"WHY, Arnold, this is simply tyranny!" "Think so?" said Arnold lightly.

"It's more—it's positively barbaric! What! Coerced into marrying a girl you have never seen? Forced to live with a woman you don't like? It's dreadful, unheard of, abominable!"

"Now, don't get excited, Chester," said easy-going Arnold, as he went on with packing his valise. "I'm the one most interested, and I'm not complaining. My good old uncle, and he has treated me like a prince all my life, is bent on what the novelists call 'a marriage of convenience.' I understand it is based on an old-time comrade friendship. Well, why not? If the girl isn't blind or crippled, and reasonably sweet tempered, it's all the same to me."

"Horrors! Have you no ideals?"

"None," freely confessed Arnold blankly. "I was brought up to regard all girls as angels, and I believe they are. I never saw one, though, that attracted me more than another, so I trust to the good taste of my whimsical relative and go like a lamb to the slaughter."

"Who is she? What is her name?"

"I have not the least idea in the world."

"And she?"

"Equally as ignorant as to my identity, I assume, and apparently of the same filial obedient mold as myself."

In the same equable frame of mind as that in which he had thus conversed with his close college chum, our indifferent hero arrived at Twenty Lakes the next day for a two weeks' outing.

Uncle Ramsey had arranged it all—outing, introduction to the predestined bride, afterwards a partnership in his extensive business, after that the honeymoon.

"Easy as falling off a log—why should I worry?" Arnold indolently asked himself, the next day, as he started out to enjoy himself in his favorite sport, rowing.

There was, indeed, a fine chain of lakes connected by little channels and full of prime fish, and the weather was sublime. At the end of two days, however, Arnold began to feel rather lonesome.

"A new boarder down at Smith's on the next lake," he heard his hostess tell her husband at the supper table.

"That so?"

"Yes, a very pretty young lady—a Miss Hope Raymond, my neighbor tells me. Mr. Preston, you must meet her."

Arnold uttered something about "a lack of interest in girls," but was out in his yawl a trifle earlier than usual the next morning. He was all eyes, too, as he passed the channel into Smith's Lake. Lo, and behold! a dainty sprite of a maiden was skimming the water in a light skiff.

"Just because I'm lonely I'll cultivate her," Arnold cheated himself into saying. "I'd welcome anybody in this dreary solitude."

Two days after that the skiff was not in much use. Pretty nearly all day long the yawl held two, and a happy, careless, merry pair they were.

Arnold fancied he had never met so artless, ingenuous, attractive a girl as Miss Hope Raymond. The young lady did not express an opinion, but her manner betrayed a full appreciation of the kindly, friendly way in which her chevalier helped her put in the time.

They boated, they took long drives along the charming lanes. Their hostesses gave one or two dances, with the rural population filling in. At the end of 10 days Arnold Preston voted that he was having the most pleasant time of his life. Pretty Hope was gay and smiling all of the time, so she must have shared his delight in this ideal outing.

"It's getting dangerous," confessed Arnold to himself, one evening near the end of his prescribed vacation. "I fancy I had best get back to Uncle Ramsey and a strict sense of duty before I am too far done. Oh dear!" and rather longingly Arnold recalled what his chum had said about "ideals."

Miss Raymond had told the little there was to say about herself. Her father was a widower. They had a great lonely home in the city, and he had sent her to Twenty Lakes for quiet and rest after a graduating year of hard study.

"The last day," rather mourned Arnold, as he started forth with his yawl. "It looks cloudy, but Hope—that is, Miss Raymond—isn't one of the kind to shy at a wetting. The mischief!"

With the words he gave the yawl just leaving the channel that connected the two lakes a great swing forward, leaped to his feet, tore off his coat, and swam like one frantic toward an overturned skiff and a form just sinking beneath the water.

A DAINTY SPRITE OF A MAIDEN.

Hope had come to meet him in the skiff. An adverse breeze had upset her frail craft. When he reached her, going down for the last time, she was insensible. He bore her ashore to where there was a rustic bench. She recovered, shrinking back from his protecting arms and devouring glance. Then, with trembling hands clung to his arm, her face expressing the gratitude she felt.

"I am so glad you saved me," she breathed—"oh, so glad that it was you."

The words inspired him. Ah! if Chester could have seen him now. In a torrent of eloquence, though a sad, vain cry, he told her of his love, and then that they must part. He was bound to a duty, but he should never forget her.

"And I—am bound, too!" sobbed Hope, clinging to his hand, but face averted and tear-stained. "Goodby—goodby!"

That evening she went home. The day following Arnold also left Twenty Lakes. He tried hard to forget—harder than ever when his uncle announced that they were going to the city next week. Arnold understood what that meant. He smiled amid his heart pain, ready to face the rack.

It was dusk, and the lights were low that eventful evening when he and his uncle were ushered into the drawing room of a palatial home in the city. Arnold knew it to be that of the bride picked out for him.

A dignified, impressive-looking gentleman entered the apartment as uncle and nephew arose from their seats.

"My dear old friend Ramsey," he spoke heartily and moved aside courteously to advance a charming young lady by his side. "My daughter, Mr. Ramsey. And this, I presume, is your nephew? My daughter Hope, Mr. Preston."

"Oh, father!"—and Hope Raymond tottered almost into his arms.

"Miss Raymond!" gasped the astonished Arnold.

"Met before—ha! ha! Raymond, we are two old plotters. Look at them," exclaimed Mr. Ramsey.

"No, leave them to their happiness," supplemented Mr. Raymond.

And there, in perfect silence, Arnold and Hope, with clasped hands, stood looking into each other's eyes.

A vague suspicion of the truth flashed into Arnold's mind as he heard his uncle chuckling in the next room.

"They sent us to Twenty Lakes purposely to meet," said Arnold.

"Was there need, do you think?" asked Hope, and then blushed and trembled at her own temerity.

"From a sense of duty," said Arnold with mock solemnity, "I must ask you to become my wife."

"Because of the mandate of a cruel father, I will have to accept," smiled Hope. "Oh, life is so beautiful, so sweet," and the next moment she was resting in his loving arms.

The Slim Woman Is Winning

The day of the slim woman's triumph has arrived. "The thinner one is the more sytlish," say the dressmakers.

This would have been sad news for the fat woman a year ago. She would have had to try dieting or exercise. Nowadays, however, the woman who is too fat for the styles goes to a druggist and gets a case of Marmola Prescription Tablets, one of which she takes after each meal and at bedtime, and so reduces her superfluous flesh quickly.

These tablets, being made in accordance with the famous prescription, are perfectly harmless, and they are, also, the most economical preparation a person can buy, for they cost only 75 cents a large case, one of which is frequently enough to start a person losing fat the rate of 12 to 14 ounces a day. Pretty nearly every druggist keeps this tablet in stock, but should yours be sold out, you can easily obtain a case by sending to the makers, the Marmola Company, Farmer Building, Detroit, Mich.—ADV.

Some Facts About the "Standard of Living"

THE standard of living is a grand social phenomenon, but the phrase has been greatly abused by blig orators and philosophers. The standard of living, says Prof. Sumner in the Yale Review, does not mean simply that we all vote that we are fine fellows and deserve grand houses, fine clothes, and good food, simply as a tribute to our nobility. The men who start out with the notion that the world owes them a living generally find that the world pays its debts in the penitentiary or the poorhouse.

Neither is the standard of living an engine which economists and reformers can seize upon and employ for their purposes. The standard of living is a kind of industrial honor. It costs a great deal to produce it and perhaps still more to maintain it. It is the fine flower of a high and pure civilization and is itself a product or result, not an instrumentality.

If by careful education and refined living a man has really acquired a high sense of honor, you can appeal to it, it is true, and by its response it furnishes a most effective security for wide-reaching principles of action and modes of behavior; but the more anyone appreciates honor in character, the less he likes to invoke it loudly or frequently. It is too delicate to be in use every day. It is too modest to be talked about much. If a man brags of his honor you know that he has not got much, or that it is not of the right kind.

AN HONEST VILLAGE.

BAVARIA, which is celebrated for its beer and its mountain scenery, as well as for its music, is now becoming celebrated throughout Germany on account of its model village, which, incidentally, is claimed as the most honest in all Europe.

In the last 100 years not a single case of theft has been recorded either in the village or in the immediate neighborhood. But, what is still more remarkable, it has done its best to conceal its record from the general public, and it is only by accident that the fact has become known.

Dezenacker, near Ingolstadt, has been attempting for some time past to persuade the Bavarian authorities that it stands in no need of a night watchman. As it is an isolated village of only 150 inhabitants, it is impossible to give it the benefit of the rural police force, and—as in all such cases under Bavarian administration—it is compelled to satisfy the authorities with an amateur night watch. At present there are 20 young men on the roll for this service, and they take it in turns year in and year out.

Latterly, however, some of the younger ones have found the duty rather irksome, and have been asking whether it is necessary. The village discussed the matter from house to house, and the decision was absolutely unanimous that the night watch was unneeded.

To one authority after another the villagers addressed themselves in the hopes of obtaining a release from the onerous rule. They searched the records of the court and found no mention of the village more recent than in the middle of the eighteenth century. This point has now been made the central figure in a petition that is to be addressed broadcast to the people of Bavaria.—New York Sun.

Norway, according to the American-Scandinavian Review, within the last five years has become the fourth seafaring nation in the world, counting by ship tonnage alone; in proportion to its population it ranks first.

Taken on the whole the South Russian grain crop is above the average. It might have been a record harvest but for the series of torrential rainstorms and violent hailstorms.

LEARN ONE THING EVERY DAY

"Men of the South—save. You must learn this lesson or that economy which so stiffens the North and inspires and stimulates its industry, will overwhelm you."—Henry Clay.

THE South has learned the lesson pointed out to it by Henry Clay more than sixty years ago, and now it is on the high road to prosperity. There is a new South in which industry and commerce have an important place, and in which the idea of saving is looked upon favorably.

Thrift seems to be solving the race problem in the South, too. Dr. Booker T. Washington visited recently the four counties of tidewater Virginia and the report he made to The Outlook of the condition of the thirty-odd thousand happy and prosperous colored people he found there was to the effect that they produce every year farming crops to the value of six million dollars, and everywhere he saw farms well tilled, modern farming implements and attractive dwellings, while no fewer than fifteen hundred farms are owned by the negroes themselves. All this was evidently the fruits of application to work, continued and persistent labor, thrift and foresight.

But, says the American Bankers' Association, there ought to be nothing sectional or racial about thrift. It is a matter of nation-wide and world-wide importance. All great empires have been thrifty. The Roman empire was founded upon thrift. When extravagance took the place of thrift among the Romans, that empire crumbled and fell.

Prussia is another example of national thrift. This idea was nurtured by the father of Frederick the Great, who stored up a vast treasure and built up a great army through the strictest economy. This was the forerunner of the great German Empire of today, and the Germans are still noted for their thrift, even when transplanted to this country where the temptations to spend money constantly are so great.

The French people have been referred to so frequently in this connection that the illustration is rather a trite one, but nevertheless that nation is a wonderful model to the world in the matter of thrift. It was the small savings of her citizens that enabled France, at the end of the Franco-Prussian War, to pay, at once, in cash, the billion dollar indemnity imposed, thus saving herself from bankruptcy. Knowing this French thrift, Russia, in her time of need, turned to that country to borrow billions.

French thrift is proverbial and France is a land of happy homes.

There is no reason why we in America should not save money. We are able to earn it, we have excellent depositories for our savings, and the savings banks reward our thrift by paying us liberal interest. One bank—the Bowery Savings Bank of New York—in the first 75 years of its history, paid in interest to depositors the enormous sum of $88,163,287.97.

The savings banks are not only doing a beneficent work in inoculating habits of thrift, in gathering and conserving wealth which might otherwise be wasted, or else lie unproductive, and in furnishing capital for many legitimate business enterprises; but, especially in our larger Eastern cities, with the great influx of alien people, they are keeping step with the churches and the public schools in helping to make good citizens of those who seek our shores as immigrants.

HOW TO MAKE YOUR HAIR BEAUTIFUL

Ten Minutes' Home Treatment Works Wonders, Stops Falling Hair, Itching Scalp and Dandruff and Makes the Hair Soft, Brilliant, Lustrous and Fluffy.

Better than all the so-called "hair tonics" in the world is a simple old-fashioned home recipe, consisting of plain Bay Rum, Lavona (de composee) and a little Menthol Crystals. These three, mixed at home in a few minutes, work wonders with any scalp. Try it just one night and see. Get from your druggist 2 oz. Lavona, 6 oz. Bay Rum and ½ dr. Menthol Crystals. Dissolve the Crystals in the Bay Rum and pour in an 8-oz. bottle. Then add the Lavona, shake well and let it stand for an hour before using. Apply it by putting a little of the mixture on a soft cloth. Draw this cloth slowly through the hair, taking just one small strand at a time. This cleanses the hair and scalp of dirt, dust and excessive oil and makes the hair delightfully soft, lustrous and fluffy. To stop the hair from falling and to make it grow again, rub the lotion briskly into the scalp with the finger tips or a medium stiff rush. Apply night and morning. A few days' use and you cannot find a single loose or straggling hair. They will be locked on your scalp as tight as a vise. Dandruff will disappear and itching cease. In ten days you will find fine downy new hairs sprouting up all over your scalp and this new hair will grow with wonderful rapidity.

Any druggist can sell you the above. The prescription is very inexpensive and we know of nothing so effective and certain in its result.—ADV.

Two "Women Policemen" in Topeka

TOPEKA, Kan., has now two police women in Miss Elizabeth N. Barr and Miss Eva Corning, who received the highest grades in the civil service examination of that city.

Miss Barr will be "night woman" the first month; Miss Corning will constitute the day force. While they will report for duty daily to the Chief, they will work largely independent of the rest of the police force. Their work will be more along preventive lines than in the arrest of the criminally inclined among the women.

For the present a star will be the only uniform the police women will wear; aside from that they can dress as they please. Later some distinguishing feature will be prescribed, possibly only a badge or certain style hat or cap.

Miss Barr is frankly enthusiastic about her work. Also she admits she has at least one qualification for the job.

"I think we have a chance to do a great deal of good. The idea of helping people, of helping women in trouble or likely to be in trouble, will be the basis of our work. It will be mostly original work, of course, as we have no precedents to guide us or hinder us."

Dance halls, places of public amusement, social conditions of working girls—these will be among the first fields of duty for the police women.

The city of Los Angeles has illuminated signs indicating the names of the streets, which are turned on and off by clockwork mechanism.

A solar physics laboratory is to be erected in New Zealand, at Nelson. The site will probably be on a summit known as The Fringe, which has an elevation of 2500 feet above sea level.

How to Make Better Cough Syrup Than You Can Buy

A Family Supply, Saving $2.00 and Fully Guaranteed.

A full pint of cough syrup—as much as you could buy for $2.50—can easily be made at home. You will find nothing that takes hold of the ordinary cough more quickly, usually conquering it inside of 24 hours. Excellent, too, for spasmodic croup, whooping cough, bronchial asthma and bronchitis.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with ½ pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2½ ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle, then add the Sugar Syrup. It keeps perfectly.

The effect of pine and sugar syrup on the inflamed membranes is well known. Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in guaiacol and other natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this combination.

This Pinex and Sugar Syrup remedy has often been imitated, but the old successful mixture has never been equaled. It is now used in more homes than any other cough remedy.

A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.—ADV.

1914 MODELS AT AUTOMOBILE SHOW ATTRACT CROWDS

Limousine With Regulation Telephone and Concealed Toilet Cases Shown.

MANY CARS ARE SOLD

Head of Cole Factory, Once St. Louisan, Visits Exhibition at Highlands.

The automobile show at Forest Park Highlands continues to attract large numbers of visitors daily and nightly. That the firms exhibiting have sent 1914 model cars has increased the interest of the visitors.

The decorations are striking and with the animated crowds make the Highlands one of the most important show places of the week.

The big exhibitors' invitation ball will be at 10 p. m. Thursday and guests will begin to gather at 9 o'clock, to view the marvelous display of motor vehicles. Two thousand invitations to the ball have been issued.

There are in all the exhibits 258 pleasure cars of 73 different makes. The cars range in price from $475 for a smart-looking roadster, to $6000 for a limousine.

After years of absence from St. Louis, J. J. Cole arrived from Indianapolis Thursday to be the guest of Henry B. Graham and Nelson S. Gotshall of the Cole Motor Co. of Missouri for the rest of the show. Cole, now president and general manager of the automobile company which bears his name, was at one time associated with the Moon Brothers Carriage Co.

"The St. Louis show is evidently going to be one of the three biggest and best shows in the entire country this season," said Cole.

Ancient Electric Shown.

Side by side in the Woods electric exhibit are two cars which show the remarkable development and improvement of the electric vehicle. One car is the first shaft-drive electric pleasure car ever constructed, having been built in 1904 by the Woods company. The other is its latest forward drive and rear drive models. These cars have one thing in common, cushion tires. The Woods company is the pioneer of the solid tire field. R. R. Doak, the local manager, has records of new models which have made as high as 93 miles a charge. These are on exhibition and are finished in gray and brown whipcord.

Three Marion Models Exhibited.

Three Marion models, a coupe four-cylinder model, a six-cylinder sedan and a six-cylinder touring car, with a big Stevens-Duryea six, form the exhibit of the Lewis Automobile Co. These cars are all left-hand drive, center controlled, and are electrically lighted and started. The Stevens-Duryea has the latest devices for comfort. The rear seat is adjustable and may either be lowered or raised or the back titled to the comfort of the occupants.

Two agencies for Marions were closed Wednesday, one with Coyle & Neelie of Mexico, Mo., for 10 cars, and one with Charles Proscasky of Belleville for five cars.

Quick Regal Sale Made.

Walking into the exhibit of the Regal company Wednesday night, Charles Scudder casually asked the price of the left-hand drive model N Regal underslung roadster. After a few minutes' conversation a deposit check was left, on the condition that the car be delivered Sunday morning. The local company also has closed two agencies, one at La Grange, Mo., for 25 cars, and one at Lawrenceville, Ill., for 20 cars.

Sells Velie Truck.

The Velie Motor Car Co. is exhibiting a full line of cars, consisting of a six-cylinder five-passenger touring model, a four-"35" roadster, and a five-passenger four "45" touring car. In the truck section is a one-ton truck with electric starter and lights and a two-ton model, which was borrowed from Geller-Ward-Hasner. A two-ton model was sold Wednesday.

Expensive Berline Limousine.

A. L. Ellwood, manager of the Locomobile Co., says his Berline limousine is attracting more attention than any model of closed cars ever turned out by his company. It has the new egg-shell finish, which can't be scratched, and the panels are of loco green, with the rest of the car black. All metal parts are of sterling silver, while the upholstery is of the newest French corduroy. The seats are finished luxuriously with toilet cases all concealed and coming into view when a button is pressed. The windows are raised by handles working on concealed cogs, while a regulation telephone enables the occupants to communicate in a whisper with the chauffeur.

Other models in this exhibit are a big "six" seven-passenger touring car, a little "six" four and five passenger model. All the models are electrically started.

Worm Drive Adopted.

The "worm wiggle" in castor oil is the feature of the Rauch & Lang electric exhibit. This company is the first to adopt the worm drive for their car and they have a special rear driving system encased in glass which shows the thorough lubricating system. The rear axle in this car is free to turn in any direction except on its own axis. Their exhibit includes a five-passenger model J, double drive, finished in the interior in purple broadcloth, and a model B 4, in gray whipcord.

Orders for 45 Cars Placed.

C. C. Lane, Western supervisor of agencies for the Premier company, is in charge of the Premier exhibit at the Lindsey Motor Pavilion. This exhibit consists of a Premier little six limousine, which was borrowed from Mrs. F. G. Thompson for the week. The upholstery is of "pebble goat." Another Premier in the display is a little six touring model. This company is also distributor for the Paige-Detroit, a popular-priced car. A 36 four-passenger coupe, a roadster and five-passenger touring car, on the same chassis, and a 25 touring car make a complete Paige line. All these models are electrically

For Bright Eyes And Clear Nose

Remarkable Catarrh Cure That Gets Right into the Affected Parts and Stops Gatherings.

S. S. S. is a Wonder for the Eyes, Nose and Throat.

It is definitely known that catarrh can be cured by the simple process of inoculating the blood with antidotal remedies that stop inflammatory conditions throughout the mucous linings of all the organs of the body. This is done with the famous Swift's Sure Specific, or as it is widely known, S. S. S. It is taken into the blood just as naturally as the most nourishing food. It spreads its influence over every organ in the body, through all the veins and arteries, and enables all mucous surfaces to exchange inflammatory acids and other irritating substances for arterial elements that effectually cleanse the system and thus put an end to all catarrhal pollution. S. S. S. cleans out the stomach of mucous accumulations, enables only pure, blood-making materials to enter the intestines, combines with these food elements to enter the circulation, and in less than an hour is at work throughout the body in the process of purification.

You will soon realize its wonderful influence by the absence of headache, a decided clearing of the air passages, a steadily improved nasal condition, and a sense of bodily relief that proves how completely catarrh often infects the entire system. You will find S. S. S. on sale at all drug stores.

For special advice on any blood disease write to the Swift Specific Co., 122 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Do not delay to get a bottle of S. S. S. from your druggist. Always insist that you want S. S. S. and nothing else. Beware of all attempts [illegible]

Cadillac

MOST STRIKING MOTOR CAR DEVELOPMENT AT THE AUTO SHOW

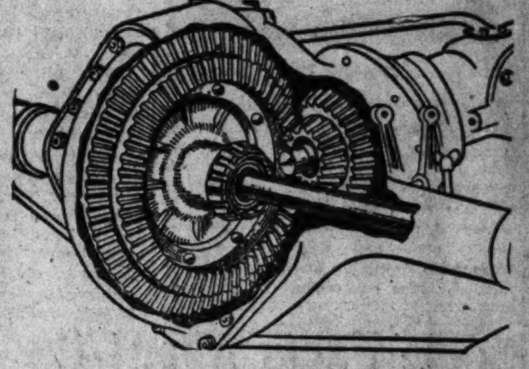
The accustomed Cadillac demand has been intensified into downright eagerness, due to evolutionary developments in the 1914 car. Most potent among which is the marvelous influence of the

Two-Speed Direct Drive Axle

Everyone who rides in the new Cadillac recognizes immediately that its well-known smoothness has been supplemented by an entirely new riding quality.

Mentally and physically, driver and passengers unconsciously relax, revelling in the delight of a new and luxurious sensation, oblivious to the almost watch-like mechanism.

The owner finds that this Two-Speed, Direct-Drive principle influences almost every Cadillac function contributing to ease, efficiency and economy.



THE advantages of this axle do not lie in its being particularly an improvement so far as its functions as an axle are concerned, but rather in the manifold advantages attained in other directions through the medium of the axle.

It affords two different gear ratios, each driving direct from the engine to the axle without intermediate gearing.

By using two direct gear ratios we have exactly doubled the means for promoting the efficient and economical application of the power developed by the engine to the driving of the car.

The low direct drive gear is especially adapted for city driving, where starting, stopping and slowing down are frequent and where cautious operation is necessary.

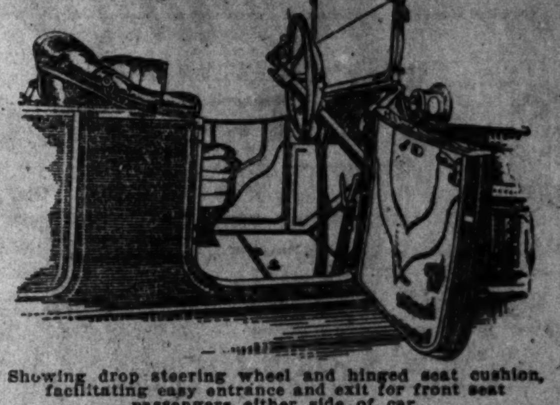
The high direct drive gear is of special advantage where speeds of about 16 miles or more per hour are permissable and desirable.

The change from one gear ratio to the other is made by means of a simple, convenient electric switch.

The advantages of the high direct drive gear ratio lie primarily in the fact that it reduces engine speed in relation to car speed, thereby accomplishing a number of desirable things. Motor friction and vibration with its resulting wear is lessened. Luxurious riding qualities are obtained. Gasoline and oil consumption is reduced. The life of the car is made longer and the cost of operation and maintenance is materially decreased.

Right Hand Entrance

WITH the new drop steering wheel and hinged seat cushion passengers may enter or leave the 1914 Cadillac at either side.



Showing drop steering wheel and hinged seat cushion, facilitating easy entrance and exit for front seat passengers either side of car.

NEBRASKA MAKING ROADS ON THE MISSOURI PLAN

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 9.—Throughout Nebraska today, under the direction of the officials of each county, work was begun to improve the roads of the State, in accordance with a proclamation of Gov. Morehead setting aside today and tomorrow as "good roads days."

Following the example of the Governor of Missouri, Gov. Morehead, in overalls, directed personally the work on the roads near the State Penitentiary. Thirty-five convicts assisted in the work.

Over the State all the equipment that could be pressed into service was used by farmers, business men and men experienced in road making.

My Doctor Said!

"I would never get well," writes Mrs. Jennie Cassady, of Bringhurst, Ind. "For years I suffered with different forms of womanly troubles, and had pains all over—especially in my head and back. I was not able to do my own work. My heart bothered me, and it seemed like everything I ate would turn sour. I suffered misery at intervals, and could scarcely drag around. After taking 6 bottles of CARDUI, in two months' time, it cured me. I recommend CARDUI to all my friends. I wish all suffering women would try it as I did, for they would certainly be benefited." AUTO HEARSE WITH BODY ENDS COAST TO COAST JOURNEY

Michael Moran's Remains Buried After 40-Day Trip Across Continent.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—The body of Michael Moran, former New Yorker and San Francisco automobile salesman, brought across the continent in a three-ton motor hearse, has arrived in New York and has been buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, at the end of its 40 days' journey over 4500 miles of mountain, desert and plain.

Leaving Peekskill shortly after 7 in the morning, the big hearse was met at Yonkers by a car of the Frank E. Campbell Co., undertakers, and escorted down Broadway to the company's rooms, where the funeral services were held.

The hearse, a large white car, was driven throughout the trip by W. A. Peck, San Francisco agent for the car manufacturers and an intimate friend of Moran. Besides Peck, the hearse carried R. H. Hambley, a San Diego (Cal.) undertaker, and B. F. Mayo, a mechanic. They left San Francisco on Aug. 28, having in the body of the hearse besides the body of Moran, inclosed in a traveling box, a supply of bedding, cooking utensils, food and gasoline.

Hard Going in Utah Desert.

The hardest part of the trip was encountered, Peck said, in crossing the desert regions of Nevada and Utah. On one day in the Salt Lake Desert they consumed 13 hours in covering 16 miles. On another occasion it cost them three hours' work to get through a canyon two and one-half miles long.

Three successive nights, in Skull Valley, Utah, they had to sleep in the hearse, beside the coffin, with no other human being within 100 miles of them.

Once the Eastern slope of the Rockies was passed, however, the going became much easier, and in Nebraska the record day's run of 316 miles in 11 hours was accomplished.

East of the Mississippi the party encountered some trouble and delay, owing to the fact that they came just in the wake of the recent heavy rains, and found frequent washouts and quagmires in the roads. But for these, Mr. Peck said, the trip would have been over much sooner.

In spite of all obstacles, the trip was made without a single serious mishap. Although the car with its load and equipment, on leaving San Francisco, weighed 6250 pounds, only eight new tires were needed on the entire trip, and one tire that had been on leaving San Francisco was still in place and standing up well on the arrival in New York yesterday.

Peck explained the manner in which the idea of the trip was born in Moran's brain not long before his death.

"I had known Moran about six years," he said. "We were not only business associates, but close friends. He was alone in the world, his wife having died five years ago. He knew that he had not long to live, and one day he said to me, 'I want you to see to sending my body back to New York.'

"'All right,' I said, 'I'll take you East in one of our motor hearses.' He spoke of the same thing again several times and I always made the same answer, to honor him, not expecting him to remember it. But when he died I found he had left me $5000 on condition that I carry out his wishes.

"He was always an automobile enthusiast—not only sold them, but fairly lived in one the last few years of his life, and I suppose that was why this idea of the last ride appealed to him."

Peck stayed only long enough for the funeral before making arrangements to have the hearse shipped and to take the train back to San Francisco.

lighted and started. Since the opening of the show agencies for eight different counties and orders for 45 cars have been placed by the Lindsey company.

The Grand Motor Car Co., distributor of the Auburn line, is showing a coupe which is built especially for the local company. It will sell for $1690 and has large tires, left-hand drive and center control with body ceiling, Berline effect, wide doors and Turkish upholstery. A touring model of the four and six complete the exhibit.

The extended cowl of the Moon light six streamline body is an exact copy of the design originated by King Alfonso two years ago and first produced in Spain. Its distinctive slenderness of lines is attracting attention. The taper of the body and the absence of dash lights in this type are accentuated by the broad cowl and gives the hood the appearance of greater length than it really has. A small light for use while the car is standing is included in the headlight.

A feature of the exhibit is the motor of the light six, which is set up in a separate exhibit and is running continuously at 100 revolutions a minute, the power being furnished by the self-starter.

One of the attractive exhibits is that of the Kissel Kar, for which James E. Newell and his brother, Leslie, are the agents. The Newells have already sold two cars. One of these is a Sedan limousine, purchased by Miss Anheuser. Other sales are in prospect.

The Kissel Kar exhibit is just to the left of the entrance at the show. The exhibit includes a big six 60, little six 48, and a Sedan, the popular owner-driven limousine. The Newells took the Kissel Kar agency for St. Louis a few months ago. They are the sons of James P. Newell, Public Administrator, and have established a large showroom at 312 North Twelfth street.

Beautiful New Auburn Now on Exhibit Here

at the Auto-Show—

Come See 1914's Startling Motor Car Value—It Is on Display Now. Each Year Some Manufacturer Brings Out the "Season's Best Buy"—a New Advancement in Value-Giving. He Sets the Pace by Producing a New Value-Standard. Buyers Who Overlook the Year's Value-Sensation Do Not Get All That Their Money Can Purchase. So Do Not Buy Any Automobiles Without First Inspecting This.

FOR NOW we present 1914's new standard motor car value—a large, beautiful, superbly finished automobile of 120-inch wheel base. It has all the roominess of high priced cars. It is fully equipped with every comfort, convenience and feature motorists can want.

You can buy no more brilliant beauty in any car. For our body design constitutes the blended lines adopted by two famous European cars for 1914. Men were sent to study styles. And in this car they offer the latest.

Is not this 1914's biggest surprise in values?

Left Drive Center Control

THE lent-hand drive gives the convenience of alighting direct onto the curb. It is unnecessary to face oncoming cars in stepping into the street when alighting.

Center control, with the levers out of the way, is another 1914 Auburn feature.

Fully Equipped— No Extras to Buy

THERE have been big-value cars that need extras to complete them. With the New Auburn "40" there is nothing you could buy to more completely equip it.

Electrically Self-Cranking Electric Lighted

AT no extra cost the new Auburn "40" is electrically self-cranked; it is electric lighted. It is also equipped with an electric horn. Our electric self-cranking system spins the motor. That ends a motor car fault, that of revolving the motor too slowly to secure combustion.

Now on Exhibit

COME see these two cars at the Auto Show and our showrooms. The visit will show you the startling motor car value of 1914. Then gauge all cars you are considering by this new standard of value.

Models: "40"—5-passenger, $1490; 6-passenger, $1590; "45"—(6-cylinder) 5-passenger, $2000; 6-passenger $2100 (all fully equipped).

GIANTS SAVED BY HAIR-LINE RULING, MATHEWSON SAYS

Athletics' Supporters Thought Game Was All Over, but Umpire Decided Against Mackmen.

By Christy Mathewson.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 9.—That game yesterday was the toughest and the most satisfactory that I have ever been through. The Giants fought their way to a victory after the other team was so sure it had won that the players began to pick up their sweaters and pack up the bats. The whole thing was changed in the wink of an eye.

The contest revolved around the decision at the plate on Strunk. Connolly made it. Connolly is an American League umpire, and it was a great boost for the honesty of umpires. He did it in the face of a home crowd which was rooting its throat sore for the Athletics.

The ninth was the termination of a terrific battle. Plank and I had been fighting to get the edge, and both clubs had been going gamely and desperately behind us.

Time and again I was saved by the dazzling support of my fielders. Plank and I had been putting everything we had on the ball in the opening innings. As the game went along without a score this effort began to tell and we did not have so much "stuff," either one of us.

Everybody knew that the scoring of one run would mean the "break" and the game. The Giants failed to cross the plate in their share of the ninth.

Our chances looked bad in the Athletics' half, after Strunk had led off with a single and Barry's bunt got away from me. When Wiltse lost the throw and the ball rolled to the stand, there were men on second and third bases and no one out.

We were in desperate straits. A long fly, a momentary fumble, anything in the nature of a slip would send the winning run across the plate and we would be two games down on the series. Not a man on the New York club lost heart. They were all fighting, Herzog, Fletcher, Doyle and Wiltse gathering around me in the box.

Players Encourage Matty.

"We'll cut them off yet, Matty," said Herzog, who had been fighting all through the game with plenty of pepper.

"Pitch your arm off," urged George Wiltse, who was playing first base for the FIRST TIME IN HIS LIFE IN AN IMPORTANT GAME.

Lapp was at the bat and a dangerous hitter. The hush which had hung over the stands all the afternoon was not perceptible now. The crowd seemed to be talking and buzzing and preparing to leave as if it was all over. I was pitching for my reputation and that game. The boys were fighting behind me to give New York and McGraw a world's championship. The loss of that game would reduce our chances to the merest shadow.

Lapp hit one at Wiltse, a mean bounder. I gulped, but George got the ball and shot it back to the plate to nail Strunk, a fast man, coming in. It was the only play. Strunk made his slide, and McLean dabbed him with the ball.

From where I was in the pitcher's box, I could not tell whether Strunk had slid across the plate ahead of the ball. It looked like a toss-up decision, one that could be called either way, with only one man, McLean, knowing whether it had been called right. It was up to an American League umpire and "safe" meant an American League victory. I gulped again and thought it was all over.

"You're out!" declared Connolly.

Matty Thought Strunk Had Scored Winning Run; Umpire Saw Otherwise

EVEN then I thought he had missed it. It seemed to me as if Strunk had gotten over the plate. From that minute I thought we would win the game. I have been traveling so long in world's series contests without any of the "breaks" that I figured my luck would change, and it did. That play decided the game. Wiltse cut off Barry at the plate for the next out and I threw out Murphy at first for the last. As I walked to the bench "Stuffy" McInnis passed me.

McInnis Roasts the Ump.

"That looked like a bad one Connolly pulled," said McInnis. "I was not sure myself, for a minute," I replied.

But Connolly has called the play honestly as he saw it, and right.

I asked McLean about it as soon as I got to the bench. He was over it and would know.

"Did you have him, Larry?" said I.

"He was blocked off two or three feet," replied the big New York catcher. The extra players on the bench who were in a position to see the play also assured me of the same thing. Of course we would not have admitted it out loud, but we would have admitted it among ourselves if Connolly had called Strunk out when he was really safe.

From Connolly's decision on we got the "breaks." If anyone ever doubts the honesty of umpires again he should be referred to this decision.

It was a tough one to call in the teeth of a home crowd, but he called it as he saw it.

We all felt that we would win after getting through the ninth. Plank was plainly weakening, and we got to him in the tenth. Some of the boys thought that Connie Mack made a mistake in sending Plank to the bat in the ninth when he still had a chance to score again with a long fly after Connolly had called Strunk out. It seemed like a great time to set a pinch hitter into the game, some man who could be counted upon to drive the ball for a long fly. But Mack was probably figuring toward the future when he sent Plank to the bat. Such a little thing would score that run which meant absolute victory, and, if Plank was responsible for it, he would feel that he had it all over the Giants. This would have been a psychological advantage for Plank. As things turned out, it helped us materially, because, by beating Plank on one of his best days, we will feel surer of victory the next time he starts.

The veteran left-hander of the Athletics deserved great praise for his work. Few of the thousands in the stands remembered that this man is 39 years old, rated to be middle aged in professions not so vigorous as that of baseball. He has been in the game a long time, yet he twirled wonderful ball. He started out with a world of speed, and seemed to be putting everything that he carried on the ball every time he delivered it.

Control Hard to Maintain.

It is hard for any pitcher to get exact control when he is spinning them up there with everything on it. It is almost impossible to get the ball closer than six or eight inches of the place where he wants it.

Yet Plank was putting the ball up there with the jump on it and controlling it. He probably figured as we all did that the team which got the first "break" would win and he had counted on it coming sooner than it did. So had I. When we saw that Plank could get the ball over we did not try to wait him out.

"Go up and hit," ordered McGraw

A MODERN HERO.

YOU'VE pictured great Napoleon as he hiked across the Alps;
Perhaps you've pictured Sitting
Bull in act of raising scalps.
Heroic figures everywhere in history
can be found;
But there are none that can compare with Matty on the mound.

No doubt you've pictured Robert Lee,
in uniform of gray;
Perhaps you've pictured Sheridan, some forty miles away;
You've had a squint at Sherman, as he
ambled to the sea,
But take a pike at Matty when the call is two and three.

Perhaps you've pictured gallant Grant,
so eloquently mute
That day at Appomattox, in his tattered
Union suit;
You've heard about Horatius, the guy
that held the bridge,
But take a slant at Matty as he stands
upon the ridge!

It now develops that "Hooks" Wiltse has been playing in the wrong position for the last 13 years or so.

Old Master's Single Drove in First Run of Game

Thirteen Years a Star, Old Master Was Invincible in Pinches; Headwork on Base Lines Clinched Second Game.

Connie Mack's Barry in Letting Plank Bat in Ninth Inning Gave National League Team a Lucky Break.

By John J. McGraw,
Manager New York Giants.
(Copyright, 1913, by the Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 9.

THREE things about that ball game yesterday have impressed me very strongly and singed themselves into my memory, now that the heat of planning and playing is over. Naturally the first one was the pitching of Christy Mathewson, to my mind after 13 years of service in the big League, today the greatest pitcher that ever lived. The next was the honest umpiring, because of the decision in the ninth inning, when Connolly, an American League umpire, called it against the team representing the League he works in and against the wishes of the home crowd, but he called it right. It was a nervy thing to do.

The third thing that impressed me was the lucky break Connie Mack slipped us in the ninth by leaving Plank in to hit with the winning run on third base.

Connie's Desperate Chance.

MACK was probably figuring ahead when he left Plank in at a time a long fly would have won it. If Plank had scored this run he would have been more confident the next time he started. Then Mack did not have any pitcher warmed up in case a pinch-hitter failed and the game went another inning, as it did. There was one out when Plank went to bat. Connie probably figured that he was one game in on the world's series and that he could afford to take a chance for the mental benefit Plank would derive if he succeeded. He had a lot of men on the bench who are famous for driving the ball for long flies.

When the stakes run high, I would take a chance on one play and run the risk of sending a pitcher in cold if it did not go through. As it is I do not look to see Plank repeat in this series now.

To my mind one play saved the game for my club, and it was executed by George Wiltse. Of course, everybody knows that the action of the battle was in the ninth inning. Everybody knew that the "break" was bound to come soon as both Plank and Mathewson were tiring. Neither manager dared to take a chance on sending in a fresh pitcher at this stage so the two shrewd veterans were left to fight it out.

Matty, set into a tight game, had outguessed the hard slugging Athletics through eight innings and I want to tell you that it is some trick to shut out the Athletics with such batters as Eddie Murphy, Oldring, Collins, Baker and McInnis. Plank had been dazzling my younger team with his speed. When the ninth opened, everybody felt that the "break" was due.

McLean Blocked Strunk.

WE failed to count in our half, but Strunk got to Matty for a clean single to start the Athletics' portion. This did not look dangerous until Barry's bunt was followed by Doyle's wild throw. This put men on second and third with none out. It was here that Matty got in his gamest pitching. Almost any other man would have cracked under the strain of that situation. My infield was drawn.

Lapp hit one sharply to Wiltse on his left side. He fielded the ball beautifully and got it away to the plate fast. McLean had the sliding Strunk blocked off and clapped the ball on him. It was an eyelash decision and Connolly could have called it either way and gotten away with it. From where I was on the lines I could see McLean had Strunk blocked and out, but the people in the stands would not have known this, and they were howling for Connolly to call him safe.

This play was the first good "break" we had received in the series.

If we had a right-handed first baseman playing yesterday, or in other words, if Merkle had been on the job and the same situation had come up, that ball would have gotten by him because a right-handed baseman would never have landed it. It was just Wiltse's dish. And I guess "old Hooks" was there in the pinch. That play saved the game.

Mackmen's Backs Sag.

EVEN after this the Athletics had a good chance with men on second and third and only one out. An outfield fly would still do the trick. It was Plank's turn to bat, but signs of activity on the Athletics' bench indicated they were going to recall him. Then he was waved ahead. Sending him to the bat went a long ways toward helping us win that game, I figure. He also hit to Wiltse and Barry was driven back to third base to be tagged out by Matty, who was in the game everywhere.

When the Athletics failed to make use of this golden opportunity to score in the ninth their backs appeared to sag, and I figured we had the game won. It looked as if the luck was breaking for us at last. Plank was weakening fast.

Matty pitched wonderful ball. He had to work every minute that he was in the box and he shut out the hardest bunch of sluggers in baseball. He had to do it to win.

"How do you feel?" I asked him in the clubhouse, after the battle.

"Pretty good," he replied. "My arm feels fine and I believe I will be able to come back with two or three days' rest.

Matty's Hit Wins It.

NOT only Matty's pitching, but his batting was also largely responsible for our victory.

It looked as if we had the weak end of the batting order up to start the tenth with McLean, Wiltse and Mathewson. McLean shoved out a hit and I took a gamble on getting that run around by putting Grant in to run for him. Matty made a clean single to center after Wiltse had sacrificed Grant to second.

It was right here that Matty demonstrated he is always playing the game with his head, and this is not meant for a pun. Herzog hit to Collins a slow roller which did not reach the second baseman until Matty was passing him in the line. The big pitcher figured he would hurl it to second base for a force play, and just as he passed Collins he leaped into the air and in what he supposed would be the line of the throw, although he had his back to Collins at the time. The ball "beaned" him and rolled to left field. He reached third and Herzog second safely.

Now if Matty had not come through with his hit in the tenth, and if he had not followed it by getting his head in the way of Collins throw, there would not have been a runner on third base, and Mack would not have been forced to draw his infield close for a play at the plate.

Plank's Complete Collapse.

PLANK was up in the air by this time and hit Doyle, filling the bases. Fletcher picked one out and drove it between Baker and Barry, the ball getting away because the infield was close. Matty's hit was responsible for the position of the infielders, and he therefore should receive credit for all three of the runs scored in the game by us. Fletcher's hit would have been fielded if the infielders had been in their normal positions. Therefore Matty not only stopped the Athletics with his pitching, but he won the game with his batting. It was a magnificent, nervy performance and I cannot go too far in my praise of "Bix Six."

I had Demaree warming up in the tenth in case Matty weakened under the long strain, but he finished with his head up like a thoroughbred. I certainly am proud to have that great pitcher under my management.

Plank deserves plenty of praise for the game that he pitched. He would have won any ordinary game. He started out with lots of "stuff" on the ball, flashing speed and a sharp breaking curve, more than he showed against us in 1911. I had thought of trying to wait him out, but when I discovered that he was putting all he had on every ball, I sent my men up there to pick them out and wang anything that looked good to them. Plank was not working our batters.

McGraw Switches Attack.

LATER, when he found his club could not put any runs under him, and that he would have to pitch to the limit all the way, he began to work on the batters more carefully.

"Wait him out now and make him pitch to the limit," I ordered, perceiving he was tiring.

We had another streak of hard luck just before the game began. While Meyers was warming up in practice, he broke his thumb on a measly little pitch and will absolutely be out for the rest of the series.

My other two cripples, Snodgrass and Merkle, are willing to work, but Snodgrass is very lame and Merkle will be out of the game for a couple of days, anyway. A little rain would help my club a lot, but it would also help the Athletics, because it would give them a chance to rest up their veteran pitchers.

Plank was not trying to work the batters, and we were not very choice, endeavoring only to pick out the good ones.

WHEN it was apparent that Plank was tiring along about the seventh inning we began to work him more carefully. He was not showing the stuff then he had at first, and we were trying to pitch him to the limit. I did not carry so much toward the end, either, and had to work on the batters very carefully, especially Collins, Baker and McInnis when that trio faced me in a row.

It is strange how a little, and an old and hackneyed trick at that will sometimes serve in the heat of a battle of the sort which took place yesterday.

During the regular season I batted about 190, but yesterday I was lucky. My hit in the tenth brought Grant, running for McLean, home. Then Herzog hit to Collins, who whirled to try for a double play at second or at least a force play at me. It was not a hard hit ball and I jumped over it in an effort to worry the Athletics' second baseman. As I glanced over my shoulder I saw that he had fielded it and then I tried that old trick.

Just as he threw the ball I swerved and jumped into the air in the path I figured the ball would take. Luck was with me at last, for it grazed my head and was deflected to left field. I reached third base and Herzog arrived at second. I am not claiming any credit for the trick, because it is one well known by ballplayers. But it resulted in two more runs for us, because, by putting men on second and third, we forced the Athletics to draw in their infield for a play at the plate, and that is the only reason Fletcher's hit, which drove in two runs, got through. With the infield back, Baker or Barry would have gotten the ball.

The game was well played and cleanly. There was little conversation on the field between the rival players. Once, when we had a couple of men on the bases, some of the younger men on the bench started to get after Plank.

"What do you think you are doing out there, you old has-been?" shouted someone. I stopped him.

"Lay off that stuff," I said. "Don't you see McGraw is coaching out there and the baserunners won't be able to hear what he says. Don't think you can get Plank with that line of chatter. Birds like Bender and him eat that."

All the Giants deserve great credit. They fielded brilliantly and smoothly, and it was their excellent backing up which gave me a chance to win my game. McLean jumped into the battle after Meyers had broken his thumb in practice, and played great ball.

The players of the two competing clubs will take 60 per cent of the remaining 90 per cent of the first four games, the amount to be divided on the basis of 60 per cent to the winners and 40 per cent to the losers. The remaining 40 per cent of the 90 per cent goes to the club owners. Ninety per cent of the gate receipts of each and every game after the first four becomes the property of the stockholders of the two contesting clubs.

MATTY DESERVES ALL THE CREDIT, COOMBS BELIEVES

Former World's Series Hero Calls Giants' Hurler Marvelous Pitcher.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—From his bed in the University Hospital in Philadelphia "Jack" Coombs, the "iron man" of the Athletics and hero of two world's series, said to a reporter for the Post-Dispatch a few minutes after the game yesterday:

"All through the game I lay here in a specially built bed, a 25-pound weight suspended from my feet and a 10-pound weight holding my head immovable. A telephone receiver was strapped to my ear. The private wire led to Shibe Park, where Connie Mack's son Earl told me the story of the game, play by play.

"It was awful. It took more out of me than if I had been playing myself. And when Earl said: 'There goes the game; Mathewson just made a single to left field,' I don't know what I said. But I tried to smile at Mrs. Coombs, who had been with me all day. I tried to smile it off. If I could only have been there, it wouldn't have been so bad. If I'd never taken part in a world's series I wouldn't have minded it so much. But I can see the boys in my mind. I can see the crowds and Connie sitting on his bench. I imagine the fellows doing certain things at certain times. And I wish I was with them.

"It was not only during the game. At 12.30 o'clock I knew that the team was leaving the hotel for the field. I tried to reconstruct the jokes, the conversation and the good fellowship, the eagerness for the coming fight. And me helpless here in bed. The strain was terrible.

"The game was won on its merits. Mathewson should certainly have won the two games he pitched against the Red Sox in the series last year. He had a right to win this one. He is a marvelous pitcher."

Browns and Cardinals Slated to Inaugurate Cellar Series Today

The belated inaugural between the Browns and Cardinals is scheduled to be played at Sportsman's Park, the home of the Browns, Thursday afternoon, starting at 3 o'clock. George Baumgardner will probably oppose Harry Sallee in the opening tilt.

If weather permits the playing of Thursday's game, the second game will be staged at Robison Field Friday afternoon. A double-header will be played at Robison Field Saturday and two games at Sportsman's Park Sunday.

Attendance in Philadelphia Is 16,000 Shy of New York Record

PHILADELPHIA fans, one night charge, are unappreciative. Only 20,563 paid to see Wednesday's big battle, despite the fact that the Mackmen had won the opening contest. These figures are 10,000 shy of the second game turn-out in Boston a year ago, exactly 30,148 paying to see the Red Sox and Giants.

The cash receipts Wednesday were $49,746, against $58,369 a year ago. The attendance in Philadelphia Wednesday was 16,000 short of the opening game turnout in New York on Tuesday. The proceeds to date have been divided as follows: Players, $67,443; each club, $22,481; National Commission, $12,499.

Matty fanned five (Collins, twice, McInnis, Baker and Lapp). Plank fooled six (Burns, three times, Fletcher, Murray and Wiltse). Mathewson issued one base on balls. Strunk was the lucky gent.

Every member of the Mackmen who has been in the series, with the lone exception of Bender, has made a safe hit. Herzog and Meyers are the only Giant regulars who have not broken into the hit column.

Although Burns fanned three times, he was lauded by McGraw for his fielding. He took hits away from Strunk, Barry and Lapp by sensational running catches.

MATTY'S PITCHING TWICE SAVED THE GIANTS—JENNINGS

Great Hurler Fanned Baker in Pinch and Retired Three Strong Hitters in Tenth.

By Hugh Jennings.

Manager of the Detroit Tigers.

Copyright, 1913, by Press Publishing Co. (New York World.)

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 9.—The "old Master" was there and then some. Matty was put to the greatest test of his long and brilliant career in the ninth inning when the Athletics got players on second and third with no one out. All seemed lost to the Giants, but Matty pulled himself together and retired the Athletics without a run being scored off him. Then, in the very next inning—the tenth—Matty brought the Giants' first run home with a long single to center. Encouraged by the one run, the National League champions set sail for Plank and nicked him for two more runs.

The "old master" was applauded by 21,000 fans when he went in to pitch in the tenth. With neatness and dispatch Matty retired Oldring, Collins and Baker in order, ending the greatest world's series game of them all.

It was a wonderful pitchers' battle, and it will long live in the memory of the big crowd that watched the famous veterans' battle. The contest was also featured by many spectacular plays, and unlike Tuesday's game there was very little hitting. Both Matty and Plank kept the batters guessing throughout the game until the tenth, when the Gettysburg veteran fell before the onslaught of McGraw's "cripples."

As the game progressed Matty seemed to improve. On the other hand Plank weakened under the terrific strain of the early innings, lost his speed after the fifth session. The first five innings Plank fanned five of the Giants. His deceptive delivery was causing McGraw's players all kinds of trouble.

After the fifth Plank began to feel the strain. His wide curve failed to break right, and the Giants began to clout the ball hard, but, unfortunately, into the fielders' hands. The "old master" had his old fadeaway working to perfection, and in the very first inning, when he had a good chance to break up the game, J. Franklin Baker, the home run clouter, fell a strike-out victim of Matty's pet delivery. Matty pitched in his usual clever style, and during the game he worked all the corners of the plate.

Fred Merkle, the big first baseman, was unable to play, and McGraw was compelled to inject Fred Snodgrass back into the game. Snodgrass' leg is still in bad condition, and in the third inning, when the Giants had a good chance to score a run, McGraw sent Wiltse in to run for him, and the southpaw pitcher played first during the rest of the game.

Each Strikes Out Five Batters.

The Giants tabbed Plank for seven hits, while Matty allowed the Athletics eight. In only two innings did the "old master" allow the White Elephants more than one bingle. Matty struck out five. Plank fanned six.

Larry Doyle, the captain of the team, gave the Athletics a good chance to score in the first inning, when he fumbled Murphy's easy roller. But Matty rose to the occasion.

McGraw's team now has a good chance of winning the series. The Giants are badly crippled with Meyers, Merkle and Snodgrass out, but Wiltse played a great game at first for them yesterday and the same can be said about McLean.

Big Jeff Tesreau, the Ozark bear, will pitch for the Giants in the third game of the series at the Polo Grounds, today. Mack is undecided on his pitching choice. He may send Bender back at McGraw's team, or use Carroll Brown, Bob Shawkey or "Cannon Ball" Joe Bush.

How Matty Won It

GIANTS.—Mclean singled to right. Grant running for McLean. Wiltse sacrificed, Plank tagging him on the line. Mathewson singled to center, scoring Grant. Collins took Herzog's roller and, in attempting to force Mathewson at second, hit the runner, Mathewson going to third and Herzog to second when the ball rolled into left field. Doyle was hit by a pitched ball, filling the bases. With the Athletic infield "drawn," Fletcher singled over short, scoring Mathewson and Herzog. Burns fanned for the third time. Shafer lined to Murphy—Three runs; three hits; one error.

ATHLETICS.—Herzog whipped out Oldring. Collins fanned. Doyle tossed out Baker. No runs, no hits; no errors.

COUNTRY CLUB GOLFERS WIN FIRST TEAM MATCH

Six golfers from the Country Club won the first inter-club team match in competition with Normandie, Bellerive and Glen Echo members on the Glen Echo course Wednesday. The Clayton squad, composed of Stuart Stickney, John Overall, Arthur Stickney, Harold Kauffman, Clarkson Potter and W. G. McRee, totaled 512 strokes, the lowest made by the clubs. The Normandie sextet, including Cy More, Eddie Limberg, Dr. Paine, L. E. Cornelius, Frank Fitzgibbon and Harry Vinsonhaler, was second, with 517. The Glen Echo and Bellerive teams tied for third place, with 525 strokes each.

The second of the series of matches will be played over the Normandie course next Wednesday afternoon.

MURPHY MAKES GOOD IMPRESSION ON DENNIE

Another star was uncovered at St. Louis U. campus during Wednesday's workout when Halfback Murphy, a stocky chap about the size of Art Kochritz, ripped gaping holes in the scrubs' defense. Murphy is a terror at hitting the line and he did so well Wednesday that his berth on the varsity is assured.

Dennie gave his men a long scrimmage as he realizes his squad is not yet in shape for the Rose Poly game Saturday.

Welsh Defeats Hyland.

BUTTE, Mont., Oct. 9.—Freddie Welsh last night was awarded a decision over Fighting Dick Hyland of San Francisco in a 12-round contest featured chiefly by Hyland's inability to land at all upon Welsh with the exception of the tenth and eleventh rounds. Welsh's cleverness and superiority over Hyland was so marked as to give the match a one-sided appearance.

Muny Game Again Postponed.

Because of wet grounds, the third and deciding game of the series between the Grimm-Gorlys of St. Louis and the Moose Club of Cleveland was postponed Tuesday. The Cleveland squad was unable to remain longer in the hope of playing, and returned to the Sixth City Wednesday evening. Each team had won one game of the inter-city series.

THAT LOST ARTICLE MAY NOT BE FOUND TODAY

Or tomorrow or next week. In fact, a month or more may elapse before it turns up. A little persistency may be necessary. Often the article remains unfound; often fear of prosecution or hope of more satisfactory reward may delay the restoration. Then the belated awakening of the finder's conscience explains many delays. But persistency and Post-Dispatch wants will usually recover a lost article if an honest person finds it. The service of the Post-Dispatch Lost and Found Bureau is also enlisted in behalf of advertisers. (93)

FAILS TO FIND HIS SISTER AFTER 25 YEARS' ABSENCE

Former Belleville Man, Unable to Locate Any Relatives, Goes Back West.

After he had spent a week in Belleville and St. Louis trying to find his sister, whom he has not seen for a quarter of a century, Walter Ludwig started back to Reno, Nev., Thursday without having found her.

Ludwig went to Belleville 10 days ago to surprise his foster-parents, Amandus Ludwig and wife, from whom he had run away 25 years ago. He learned on arriving in Belleville that Ludwig and his wife had been dead 15 years. Then he heard that Ludwig had bequeathed some Belleville property to him, but the court records showed that because of the foster-son's continued absence from home without communicating with relatives or friends, he had been declared legally dead. The property had been divided among other heirs.

After Ludwig learned that his foster-parents were dead and that he himself was dead in the eyes of the law, he turned his attention to looking for his sister, Mary. He could find no trace of her except that she had married a man in St. Louis. Ludwig was an orphan and was sent to St. Clair County 37 years ago with a number of other orphan children who were adopted. For the last 25 years Ludwig has worked on ranches in the West.

MONEY WANTED

You Can Buy With Confidence

ANY piece of property or deed of trust that has our guaranty of title.
For you run no risk of loss should a defect appear.
Isn't this perfect security worth having. The cost is small.

Complete Loss
Thomas Jones died in 1843, leaving children, one of whom, a daughter, married during her minority, and while still under age, she and her husband executed a deed to her interest in her father's estate. This daughter died in 1892, prior to the death of her husband, and her children brought suit to have the deed executed by her set aside.
The Supreme Court held that the married daughter remained under disability until her death and her heirs had 10 years after in which to disaffirm the deed.
Fifty years adverse possession did not give good title.
The Certificates would not disclose this flaw.
The Guaranty would have given full protection against it.

Remember the Difference
A Certificate considers matters of record only.
A Guaranty protects against loss under every defect, whether of record or not.

SOUTHERN CATTLE—The run in the quarantine division amounted to a couple of thousand head, about half consisting of canners and half of Oklahomas. Canners dropped 15c to 40c, as buyers were out to break the market. Steer trade ruled slow. The first Texas drylot cattle of the season got in today.

Trading in securities was slightly more active on the local Stock Exchange Thursday, but the price range was irregular owing to the recent decline in Wall street's market. The demand in the bond market was limited.

Third National Bank sold in a small way at $247.50, compared with a preceding transfer between sessions at $250. National Bank of Commerce was offered at $136 without bids after a sale at $135. Bankers' Trust was 1 point higher on bids at $197 and offers at $205. Mississippi Valley Trust was fairly firm at $290 sales. Other bank and trust shares were quiet.

United Railways issues showed no wide changes on the call. The miscellaneous list was steady.

Local Money Market.

With interest rates tapering off from recent high points, and ample funds offering for lending purposes, the banks in and around St. Louis are beginning to feel materially easier.

Interest quotations for 60 and 90 day bills are 5½ to 6 per cent, and nonresident institutions are still among the leakers in the buying movement.

Deposits, if anything, have shown a gain since the beginning of the present month. Reserves are still well above all requirements.

Call money was offered at 5¼ to 5½ per cent.

Grain futures were fairly steady in Thursday's market.

The trade was inclined to wait on the Government crop report to be issued after the market closed. Foreign markets were quiet.

The Liverpool wheat market opened with an easier tendency and prices were ⅛d lower. A further decline of ⅛d was recorded, with moderate realizing. The easier American cables yesterday, free Russian and Canadian offers, better weather reports from Argentine and expected liberal world's shipments this week were the incentives for depression. Notwithstanding these influences, there appears a growing undertone of steadiness on all declines, and this is largely attributed to dryness in India and fears of a possible lowering of Argentine crop prospects.

Liverpool corn opened lower on easier American cables and better reports from Russia. Later there was a rally of ⅛d to ¼d, with shorts covering, but again prices declined on the Argentine forecast of shipments and a poor demand for both cargoes and parcels.

Minneapolis wheat receipts were 411 cars, against 306 last week and 550 last year. Duluth, 336, against 498 and 373. Winnipeg, 1208, against 1145 and 814. Total, 1208, against 1145 and 814. Minneapolis wheat stocks increased 1,100,000 bu for five days.

A leading Paris newspaper estimates the French wheat crop at 347,144,000 bu and French imports at 32,000,000 bu. The official estimate on the French crop was 322,460,000 bu.

Fruits.

APPLES—Prices are well sustained for extra fancy fruit and the demand is good for such kind, but the general market is weak. Genitings at $1.50 to $2.50, huntsman at $1.50 to $3, ben davis and gano at $1.25 to $2.50 (extra fancy up to $2.75@3), winesap at $1.25 to $4, willowtwig at $1.75 to $3.25, black twig at $1.50 to $3.50, York imperial at $1.50 to $3.50, Missouri pippin $1 to $3.25 to $3.50. Roman beauty at $1.50 to $3.25—other fine varieties accordingly; common green varieties at $1.25@1.60. Home-grown keifer (wagon receipts) sell at 25@30c per one-half bushel basket and at 40@50c per bushel box.

THE JARR FAMILY

By Roy L. McCardell

Mr. Jarr Engages to Bring Home a Menagerie for a Harlem Flat.

Epistle 6—To Isador Slavinsky, Glazier, Wholesale and Retail Dealer in Plain and Fancy Glass, Jobbing Attended To, Estimates Cheerfully Given. From Edward Jarr, Touring Panama and the West Indies.

Dear Slavinsky: Your interesting letter with bill inclosed in which (the letter, not the bill) you wished me a pleasant trip and free from all care and worry and notified me if I did not send you 60 cents for putting in a 12x18 light, Aug. 10, last, you would bring suit, is to hand.

Also, I hardly know what to say in reply to your question as to how much a twin screw steamship costs, and if I think it would pay your eldest son, Sidney, to give up his position as moving picture cowboy and become the captain of an ocean liner.

The fact that your son Sidney can play the piano and has been a mesmerist's "horse" or subject, and can stay in a state of cataleptic trance in store windows for a fortnight at a time, would doubtless be of great help to him in navigating a ship, but before Sidney induces his friend, who has a little money to invest, to buy an ocean liner for him, I would advise Sidney to go to one of the ocean steamship companies in New York and borrow a medium-sized twin screw steamer and practice crossing the ocean with it a few times before he decides.

The great success your son Sidney has made as a moving picture cowboy because he can roll a cigarette with one hand presages a prosperous career for him as commander of an ocean liner.

Mrs. Slavinsky's fear that her son must submit himself to be tattooed all over before he can become a sailor, because she saw a sailor in a dime museum so tattooed is groundless. Tattooing is now entirely done away with in the merchant marine. All sailors are now only compelled to decorate themselves with nautical designs, such as anchors, ropes, capstans, mermaids, snakes, fat ladies, etc., by pyrography or burnt leather work.

After Sidney has had these designs burned over his facade he must tint them in dull pastel shades.

When it is too stormy for him, as captain, to go on deck, he can go to the back portion of the ship and let the lady passengers copy the pictures in art stitch or bead work. This kills time at sea and makes any line popular with the ladies.

As to your wife being anxious that I bring her home a couple of old cigar boxes full of pearls and diamonds, I can only say that I would have been more than glad to do so, but I forgot to bring any cigar boxes with me. This is not my fault, Slavinsky. You should have given me several boxes of cigars before I left. Don't let it happen again.

I am also very sorry I will not be able to bring home an alligator and a rhinoceros to your little boy, Izzy. I am glad to hear that the janitor has promised to let him keep them in the cellar, and that Izzy expects to pay for the food and clothing of the alligator and rhinoceros by charging his little playmates in the neighborhood a cent apiece to ride the tractable creatures around in the cellar.

But for that very reason I cannot bring home the animals in question. The natives here keep them in chimneys where they fatten them for market, but the very air of a janitor is certain death to them, while the presence of a cellar causes them to shed all their wool and moan in a way that would break your heart to hear.

I mark what you say regarding how you would appreciate it if I would shoot a set of furs for your married sister, but am sorry to say that this is the nesting season for furs down here, and the law forbids their being hunted, for fear the little furs will perish if the parent furs are killed, and hence cannot bring the wild succotash to them upon which these harmless but beautiful little creatures subsist.

I also note that your little son Izzy wishes me to bring him home a pirate, of which my little boy wrote him; as Izzy is much interested in the curious habit of the wild pirate of these latitudes in burying treasure.

At this time of year, I am sorry to say, pirates are not in season. I shall be glad, however, to bring you some bahamas from the Bahama Islands, also a mongoose (a beautiful bird of Jamaica, that is now in full plumage). I shall also be glad to bring you several of their young, or, as they are called here, mongoslings.

The mandrake, another curious tropical bird, makes a nice pet when stewed, but it should always be stewed in rum or sherry. I shall also be glad to bring your little Izzy home a shark or two, if he will promise to be gentle with them. Sincerely yours,

EDWARD JARR.

AN ARKANSAS BANK.

THERE is water in banks the same as in wells and securities, according to Broker D. Arthur Bowman, only, it is rainwater.

Bowman discovered this in a recent circular letter from the Rainwater Bank and Trust Co., of Morrilton, Ark.

Wood Rainwater is president of the bank; Cloudy Night Rainwater, vice-president and Night Rainwater, treasurer. Loid Rainwater and Pearl Rainwater are directors. (Pure Rainwater, somehow, was left out.)

Although full of "Rainwater" the bank is a hustler for business, for the letter stated:

"You will never have a bank account unless you start one. It's just as easy to give checks as to keep your money in the clock or dresser drawer, or in 'woman's first bank.'"

Bowman says the Rainwaters who run the bank are all "Good Indians," but wonders how it happened that old "Rain-in-the-face" failed to be among the officers or directors.

Happy Dad.

"OH, George!" breathed Janet in eager excitement, "did you tell father that you had saved up $500?"

"'Lend it to me, will you?'"

"THAT man you just introduced me to impresses me as one who knows how to keep his mouth shut at the right time."

"Yes; he's trying to get used to his new teeth."

The natives here keep them in chimneys where they fatten them for market, but the very air of a janitor is certain death to them, while the presence of a cellar causes them to shed all their wool and moan in a way that would break your heart to hear.

I mark what you say regarding how you would appreciate it if I would shoot a set of furs for your married sister, but am sorry to say that this is the nesting season for furs down here, and the law forbids their being hunted, for fear the little furs will perish if the parent furs are killed, and hence cannot bring the wild succotash to them upon which these harmless but beautiful little creatures subsist.

I also note that your little son Izzy wishes me to bring him home a pirate, of which my little boy wrote him; as Izzy is much interested in the curious habit of the wild pirate of these latitudes in burying treasure.

At this time of year, I am sorry to say, pirates are not in season. I shall be glad, however, to bring you some bahamas from the Bahama Islands, also a mongoose (a beautiful bird of Jamaica, that is now in full plumage). I shall also be glad to bring you several of their young, or, as they are called here, mongoslings.

The mandrake, another curious tropical bird, makes a nice pet when stewed, but it should always be stewed in rum or sherry. I shall also be glad to bring your little Izzy home a shark or two, if he will promise to be gentle with them. Sincerely yours,

EDWARD JARR.
